SENATE TAKES UP WORLD COURT DEBATE

DEMS TAKING LEAD; BORAH REFUSES AID

Votes of Minority Party Needed to Support Coolidge for U. S. Adherence

HOUSE REJECTS GIFT TAX

Beats Frear's Plan to Continue Taxation with Inheritance Levy Rates

Washington, D. C.—(AP)—After a day of nearly three years, the senate Thursday heeded the repeated urgings of the White House and began debate on a resolution proposing American membership in the world court.

Even in its beginnings, the discussion took on many of the same characteristics that vitiated the senate's long struggle over the League of Nations. Once more the mantle of leadership for favorable senate action fell upon the shoulders of a Democratic spokesman. In opposition stood a determined phalanx of irreconcilables, under the captaincy of a Republican chairman of the committee. Holding the balance was a group whose leaders had been the "mild reservationists" of the fight over the league.

Despite the assurances of the two Republican presidents who have recommended American membership in the court, the irreconcilables have sought to convince their Republican colleagues that the court fight is only the league fight over again. An almost solid Democratic membership favors the court.

SWANSON LEADS

The resolution of adherence upon which debate began was offered by Senator Swanson of Virginia, ranking Democrat on the foreign relations committee without the approval of Chairman Borah. It proposed reservations framed on the basis of those originally suggested by President Harding in February, 1923, and including a stipulation that in entering the court the United States recognizes no legal relation to the league.

Senator Swanson himself began the debate in open session, with a prepared address arguing for American membership in the court as the best present means by which his country can contribute to world peace. He spoke to crowded galleries in which women predominated.

It is expected that Democratic votes will be needed for ratification when the issue reaches a roll call. Of the League of Nations controversy are carrying their opposition to the world court. With Chairman Borah of the foreign relations committee as their leader, the irreconcilables contend that the court is the creature of the league.

RED ASKS U. S. TO RECOGNIZE RUSS SOVIET

Congressman Berger of Milwaukee Says America Can No Longer Ignore It

Washington, D. C.—(AP)—Recognition of the Soviet government of Russia was asked in a resolution drawn up Thursday by Representative Berger (Dem., Wisconsin), who said he would ask for public hearings by a house committee.

In a statement Mr. Berger referred indirectly to the recent banquet of American bankers and Russian industrialists in New York and said the government may as well recognize what the bankers and business men have long since recognized, namely, "that the Soviet government is here to stay for a considerable time at least."

"Our policy with respect to Russia has been unsuccessful and stupid," he continued. "When it was clear to all the world that the Russian government was as solid as any government can be, our government still entertained the hope, induced partly by the extensive propaganda which pro-Czarists conducted in the United States, that the Soviet government would be overthrown."

SENTENCE RIPON COED ON BLACKMAIL CHARGE

Irregular Senate G. O. P. Men Make Bob "Regular"

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright, 1925, by Post Pub. Co.

Washington, D. C.—The senate Republicans have disposed of the issue of "regularity" with the vernacular observation that "there ain't no such animal."

By voting to give young Senator Robert M. La Follette a committee place in a Republican the wise old heads of the party have conceded that they have no right to pass up on the use of the name Republican. That it is solely a matter for the voters of a state to decide Wisconsin by an overwhelming majority nominated La Follette and then elected him on the regular Republican ticket. Behind that the senate refuses to go.

Actor Charges Wife With Leaving Him and Living With Another Player.

New York—(AP)—Lionel Atwill and his wife, Elsie Mackay, are now playing a scene in real life that they often enacted on the stage together.

Mr. Atwill has brought suit for divorce against his wife charging her with leaving him despite his pleas and with living with Max Montezole, an English actor, in an uptown apartment. It was in the last act of "The Comedian" in which the Atwills starred that the wife leaves her husband as he seeks in vain to win her back.

Montezole and Mrs. Atwill are now aboard the liner Samaria which sailed from Boston Saturday for Liverpool, according to Atwill's counsel.

The actor said he had been introduced to Montezole by his wife and had befriended him, giving him a leading part in a new play and entertaining him at his Long Island home.

Don't Let Santa Claus Miss A Home In Appleton

Among the greatest joys of life is to note the happiness and exultation of children on Christmas morning when they bound out of their beds and rush to the Christmas tree to see what Santa Claus has left for them. All the sacrifices required to provide the children with Christmas happiness is forgotten in their happiness. It is a happy day for children and parents alike.

RESORT MANAGER FLEES AS COURT ORDERS PADLOCK

"Glass Front" Roadhouse Locked up As Nuisance on Court's Order.

The "Glass Front" roadhouse on Grand-rd. is tightly closed. The exact date of the departure of its occupants is not known, but the exit took place sometime between Thursday of last week and Tuesday.

The building is now locked so securely that even under-sheriff Earl Schwartz experienced considerable difficulty in gaining entrance Tuesday evening. His mission was to lock the place, pursuant to orders of Judge Theodore Berg, who had so decreed Tuesday morning.

Not only was the building locked when the under-sheriff got there, but it was locked so tightly that he only managed to get in by a window which had not been fastened quite as securely as the rest.

Nothing remained in the building. Furniture, rugs, everything was gone, so the under-sheriff closed the place again and returned to the city.

Papers ordering the manager of the roadhouse, Janet Leonard, and Fred Diehl, the owner, to appear in court Tuesday morning to show why it should not be closed, were served on them last Tuesday by Sheriff Peter Schwartz.

The papers were issued by John A. Lonsdorf, district attorney, following numerous complaints from residents in the vicinity that it was a disorderly house.

Diehl appeared in court Tuesday and told Judge Berg he had rented the building at the beginning of the year and that he was not aware of what had been going on there. Janet Leonard, the manager, failed to appear.

BADGER CONGRESSMAN IS NYE'S ATTORNEY

Sen. Gerald P. Nye, of North Dakota, former Hortonville man, whose right to a seat in the United States senate has been the cause of a great controversy in that body, has a Wisconsin congressman, Edward Voight, of Sheboygan, to represent him as legal counsel.

Mr. Voight contends that Governor Sorlie of North Dakota has full authority to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Sen. Ladd, and that even if the laws of that state did not specifically mention the method of filling vacancies, they should be interpreted broadly to permit the state to have full senatorial representation.

POLICE HOLD THREE MEN AS ROBBER SUSPECTS

Whether three men arrested in Minneapolis recently for bank robberies had any connection with the robberies at Greenville, Shiocton and Bear Creek this fall is the subject of an investigation by authorities. The three robberies all occurred in November within the course of a week. A police official in Minneapolis is trying to locate the owner of a Buick car which was found in their possession when they were arrested. It carried a license plate, which records show, had been issued to Charles McCormick of Winnebago for an Oakland automobile.

Appleton students of the University of Wisconsin will return home Friday on a Christmas train provided by the Chicago and Northwestern railway. The train will leave Madison at 1:30 in the afternoon and will end its run at Green Bay. The special consists of nine coaches.

Owing to the heavy pre-holiday traffic the railroad will, in order to relieve congestion, operate Trains 102 and 121 in two sections regularly until after Christmas.

Two Hundred Ways of Using Oranges and Lemons.

Oranges and Lemons have a wide variety of uses.

Housewives know citrus fruits are excellent additions to the menu, but many of them despair of new ways of serving them.

To aid in adding greater variety and healthfulness to the family table, a booklet of orange and lemon recipes has been prepared. The recipes have been made up and tested by recognized domestic science experts. They are simple and practical.

This booklet is offered free to any one of our readers. To obtain a copy merely fill out and mail the coupon below, enclosing two cents in stamps for return postage. Be sure your name and address are legible so there will be no delay and no mistake.

SANTA CLAUS IS ALWAYS HERE

Children May Be Disillusioned But Their Minds Still Love Him.

Harry A. Hartman, A professional Santa Claus, in The American Magazine.

Children still believe in Santa Claus, but you will find more who are "wise" at a younger age. I've seen little 5-year-old tots with the knowingest smiles on their faces as they watched older children who were spellbound in the presence of Santa Claus. On the other hand, I find many children, usually girls, 12 years old who still believe in the old fellow.

Nothing is more pathetic to me than a child about to lose his faith in Santa Claus. He clings to the fancy as long as he can. And even when he is finally disillusioned, he is inclined to relapse into fascinating moments which the illusion becomes real again.

Four or five years ago a group of high school girls came into the toy department where I work. One of them, about 15, looked at me with the most wistful eyes. It touched me somehow, and I said to her, just as I would have to a little child. "Come up here, honey, and talk to Santa Claus."

The other girls laughed, but she came. I took her hand and said, solemnly and seriously, "What do you want, Santa, to bring you, honey?" Tears came into her eyes, and the manner of the other girls changed, too. Keeping up the illusion, she said, "A dolly, Santa."

We talked on in the same vein, and in a few minutes the other girls were wanting me to talk to them, too. It was a striking example of the tendency of the human mind to revert to its happiest moments.

Functionaries Suffering Under Misery Of Lodgings

A letter typical of many which are sent from organizations in Europe to America asking for charity was received Tuesday morning by William H. Zuehlke, postmaster. The letter is from an organization of postoffice employees in Klagenfurt, Germany, and asks for donations for the purpose of building homes for its "distressed and needy functionaries."

The letter is interesting from a standpoint of grammar and from the system of spelling which is used. It reads:

"Klagenfurt, the 6th of November 1925.

"Honoured Director of Office.

"Dear Colleagues.

"By the present letter we come to you, dear colleagues, with a little petition.

"In consequence of the war, the period after the war, the occupation by the Jugoslaves, the ruin of our value—the inhabitants of Carinthia have become a poor people. Especially we suffer under a great misery of lodgings. A great number of our colleagues has no havitations during many years; another deal is lodging with his family at the house of his relative in insufficient and very limited rooms.

"In consequence of this circumstances we have a great danger with infectious maladies; besides, living there, we cannot have any joy of life, and joy of work.

"Unfortunately to the intellectual and bodily recreation is drawn a strait limit on account of our inadequate conditions of salary.

"Our native country and our nation have suffered so much that—in spite of the good will of our statesmen—a just salary of functionary will be a good but vain desire for how many years.

"Now then, in order to bring on at the least a little relief to this distress, the functionaries of post and telegraph have formed a society for building habitations.

"The above mentioned society itself makes the task to build small and healthy lodgings. Just so we imagine the purchase of a modest place of recovery.

"But notwithstanding the offering-sense of the members and the other people—a full success only is possible with your assistance. Referring to the proverb: "One for all, all for one" we implore you, dear colleagues in the United States of America: "Let us have your help."

"We shall be contented with the smallest amounts and for ever we shall be obliged to you.

"Our society for building habitations has made a book of honour, where the names of the founders are registered for perpetual memory.

"Now, for having a great number of founders, we ask the honoured directors of office to design collecting—lists between their functionaries.

"Post-offices having transmitted to us such collecting—lists with amounts surpassing $3 dollars, will have the above printed picture in corresponding colours. The names of the founders will be visible on the picture for remembrance and for thanks.

"Thanking you in anticipation for your helping assistance, we remain, dear Sirs and Ladies, with collegial salutations, Wohnbauverein."

ALL-DAY CHRISTMAS PROGRAM IN HIGH SCHOOL

Students of Appleton high school will spend only a few hours at their studies Friday, the last day before the Christmas vacation. A Christmas program starting late in the morning and lasting all day has been arranged.

Miss Margaret Sherman of the faculty will open the program with a reading, and the afternoon program will be in charge of Miss Ruth McKennon of the school speaking department. The quartet of the First Methodist church, composed of Mrs. Oscar Adler, Mrs. J. T. Quinlan, Carl McKee and George Nixon will sing a group of Christmas carols and the student body, lead by Mr. McKee, also will sing a number of Christmas songs. A playlet directed by Miss McKennon will be presented by a group of students.

The assembly room will be decorated with Christmas trimmings and a Christmas tree will complete the decorations. Santa Claus will appear before the assemblage.

CITY PUSHING WORK ON 1926 TAX ROLL

Preparation of the taxroll for the collection period at the city hall next month is proceeding rapidly. Half dozen persons in the offices of E. L. Williams, city clerk and E. L. Bachman, city treasurer, have been working diligently figuring out the amounts due from each taxpayer and the records will be in shape by the time the holidays arrive. The date when taxpaying will start is to be announced by Mr. Bachman as soon as the preliminary work is completed.

SISTER MARY TELLS HOW TO MAKE MANY KINDS. OF CANDIES TO FILL CHRISTMAS BOXES

BY SISTER MARY

Since Christmas wouldn't be Christmas without its candy these recipes are timely. Fondant can and should be made several days or a week before wanted for dipping or use. Glace fruits and nuts must be made and kept on ice until wanted and can't be kept longer than two days. Fudge, penouche and any candy that is stored to a cream will keep fresh several days stored in a tight box.

If one must do it all in one day prepare the nuts the evening before when the whole family is present to help "pick out." This saves much precious time when the real candy-making starts.

Be sure everything needed is at hand, waxed paper, confectioner's sugar, flavorings, anything called for in the recipe that is used should be in the house before beginning to cook a thing.

If candy is given as a gift it should be boxed as neatly and carefully as the finest on the market. A candy box that shows the dust of many months on its cover isn't half as "fetching" as a clean undented box from the five-and-ten cent store.

When cutting or shaping candies do not make the pieces too big. Few persons want to make a whole meal on one kind of candy. They like to try all the varieties.

As fondant forms the basis of so many candies this recipe is essential. Butter, cream, nut roll, nut wafers and chocolate-coated candies use fondant in their making.

FONDANT
Two cups best granulated sugar, 1-8 teaspoon cream of tartar, 1-2 cup boiling water.

Mix and sift sugar and cream of tartar into a perfectly smooth sauce pan. Add water and stir until sugar is melted. Put over a low fire and bring slowly to the boiling point.

Watch carefully that sugar does not stick and burn on the bottom of the pan. Place a pan of cold water close to the pan of cooking syrup.

As the crystals form on the sides of the pan wipe them off with a soft cloth dipped in the cold water. Do this until the sides are clear. Cover pan and let syrup boil two minutes. Remove and scrub off crystals. Roll uncovered until a few drops dried in a saucer of cold water can be picked up with the fingers and formed into a soft ball. Always remove syrup from the fire while testing. When the "soft ball" is formed put the pan of hot syrup immediately into a large pan of cold water and let stand undisturbed until cool. Beat with a wooden spoon until creamy. When too stiff to stir easily turn onto a large platter or slab and knead until soft. Put into an oiled bowl, cover tightly and let stand at least 24 hours. Then flavor and use as wanted.

If the crystals have not been entirely removed from the sides of the pan before the syrup is cooked enough the syrup must be transferred to a clean bowl or platter to cool. These crystals will make the fondant "grainy" and spoil the smoothness of the candy.

If the syrup was cooked too much it is too little, which will happen even to the most experienced, put the fondant into a clean sauce pan with just enough water to melt the sugar and repeat the process exactly as in the first instance.

DIPPING
"Chocolate dipping" requires some practice and patience but is not too difficult to be done at home.

Regular coating chocolate should be used.

Break chocolate into small pieces and put in top of double boiler. Put lukewarm water in water pan and slowly heat water under chocolate. The chocolate must melt slowly and over as little heat as possible. As chocolate melts stir in 2 tablespoons olive oil to one 1 pound of chocolate. This gives gloss and firmness to the coating. The chocolate must never be much more than "blood heat" while melting. When chocolate is melted and blended with oil pour half of it into a shallow bowl to cool. Work with a fork or fingers to keep chocolate smooth. When cool, but soft and perfectly smooth drop the prepared center in the chocolate and roll until completely coated. Lift out with a fork rubbing off surplus chocolate on the edge of the bowl. Put on waxed papers spread on a flat surface to cool and harden.

As dipping chocolate hardens add warm chocolate enough to soften working the whole mass until smooth with the fingers or a fork.

Quick work and efficiently arranged equipment are imperative for smoothly coated candies. If the prepared centers are placed at the left hand, the coating chocolate immediately in front and the paper-covered trays at the right of the worker she can work with greater speed.

BUTTER CREAMS
One-half cup fondant, 2 table spoons butter, 1-2 teaspoon vanilla. Work butter into fondant. Add vanilla and beat until like heavy cream. Pack in a closely covered bowl and let stand in a cold place until firm. Form into marbles and let stand about an hour to dry the surface. Dip in chocolate and put in a cold place to harden.

A clear cold day and a clear cool kitchen free from steam mean much toward the success of the candies.

Here are some suggestions for fillings. Always make the center small and let stand long enough to dry, before dipping.

Combine finely chopped nuts and fondant, working with a fork until thoroughly blended. Shape and dip. Roll a cup of jelly in fondant. Dry and dip.

Cover half a nut meat with a thin coating of fondant. Dry and dip. Skin and stone white grapes, roll in fondant, dry and dip.

Caramels and nougats can be coated with chocolate after they have hardened.

Peanut brittle is delicious broken in small pieces and coated with chocolate.

To coat with fondant melt the fondant over hot water. Drop center into melted fondant and place on a waxed paper to dry and harden.

These candies made with fondant and chocolate coatings take more time and are harder to make than the following ones. There's nothing like fudge and penouche to take one back to the days of one's youth.

FUDGE
Two cups granulated sugar, 3-4 cup milk, 1-4 cake butter, chocolate, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 cup bicolor nut meats (optional), 1-2 teaspoon vanilla.

Put sugar into a smooth sauce pan and add milk and let stand a few minutes. Put over a low fire until sugar is melted. Do not stir until the sugar is melted and the syrup begins to boil. Cut chocolate into small pieces and stir into boiling syrup. Stir constantly until candy is done. When chocolate is melted and candy is almost ready to remove from the fire stir in butter. When a few drops of syrup tried in a saucer of cold water are firm enough to keep their shape as they drop into the water and can be picked up with the fingers the candy is "done." Cool quickly but do not begin to stir until perfectly cool. Beat until creamy adding vanilla when beginning to stir.

LEMON DROPS
One cup powdered sugar, 1-4 cup lemon juice.

Put sugar into a smooth sauce pan and add lemon juice. Let stand undisturbed until sugar is dissolved. Put over a low fire and bring slowly to the boiling point. Boil gently until a few drops tried in cold water are hard and crack against the bottom of the saucer. Do not stir while cooking and dip the lines of a fork into the syrup to test. When candy is done drop from the tip of a spoon onto a marble slab or waxed paper spread over smooth trays.

ORANGE PASTES
Two tablespoons plain granulated gelatine, 2 cups granulated sugar, 3-4 cup boiling water, 1-2 cup cold water, 1 large orange.

Soak gelatine in cold water for ten minutes. Add boiling water and stir until dissolved. Add sugar and grated rind of orange. Bring quickly to the boiling point and boil fifteen minutes. Add orange juice and boil seven minutes longer. Pour through a fine wire strainer into a brick-shaped bread pan. Let stand two or three hours in a cold place. Cut into squares and roll in powdered sugar.

This candy can be stored occasionally while cooking to prevent burning. After the boiling point is reached cook over a low fire.

MOLASSES TAFFY
Two cups light brown sugar, 1 cup water, 1 tablespoon vinegar, 1-2 cup molasses, 2 tablespoons butter, 3-4 teaspoon vanilla.

Combine sugar and cream and let stand until sugar begins to melt. Bring slowly to the boiling point without stirring. When syrup begins to boil stir constantly until candy is removed from the fire. Add butter soon after the syrup begins to boil. When a soft ball is formed when a few drops are tried in cold water the syrup is removed at once from the fire and cooled quickly without stirring. When cool add vanilla and beat until creamy. Add nuts and continue beating until mixture loses its gloss. Turn into a buttered pan and cut in inch squares.

Both fudge and penouche require much more stirring to make smooth. Always stir just as long as possible before putting into pans to harden. Shredded coconut is good in place of nuts in penouche.

This candy fruit cake is good and easy to make.

CANDY FRUIT CAKE
One-half cup pecan nut meats, 1-2 cup English walnut meats, 1-2 cup chopped figs, 1-2 cup stoned dates, 4 tablespoons shredded citron, 1-2 tablespoon orange juice, 2 squares butter, chocolate, powdered sugar.

Put nuts and fruit through food chopper. Mix thoroughly with juice of orange. Mix chocolate and sugar into first mixture. Work with a fork until perfectly blended. Pack in a buttered square pan. When firm cut in squares and roll in powdered sugar.

PEANUT BRITTLE
Two cups granulated sugar, 1 cup shelled and skinned roasted peanuts. Put sugar into an iron frying pan. Melt over a slow fire until a bright straw color and a thick smooth syrup. Stir in peanuts and pour into a pan making the candy as thin as possible. Mark in deep creases with the blunt edge of a knife and break on the creases when cold.

SCOTCH BROWNIES
One and one-fourth cups brown sugar, 6 tablespoons vinegar, 2 tablespoons butter.

Mix sugar, vinegar and butter in a smooth sauce pan. Put over a low fire and bring slowly to the boiling point. Boil gently over a low fire without stirring. Cook until a few drops tried in cold water snap and break as they touch the water. Drop from the tip of a spoon onto a marble slab or trays covered with waxed paper.

BLACK WALNUT CARAMELS
Two cups brown sugar, 1-2 cup granulated sugar, 1-2 cup butter, 3-4 cup red label corn syrup, 1-8 teaspoon cream of tartar, 1 cup milk, 1-2 cup cream, 1 cup broken black walnut meats, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Melt granulated sugar combined with cream of tartar over a low fire melting, stir in remaining sugar, butter, corn syrup and milk. Cook until the lumps are cooked out. Cook until syrup forms a hard ball in cold water. Stir in cream and cook until a golden brown. Stir white syrup cracks against the bottom of the saucer when tried in cold water. Remove from fire, add nuts and turn into a well buttered shallow pan. Let stand several hours in a cold place. Cut in squares and wrap in oiled paper.

It will be necessary to stir the syrup almost constantly during the last stage of cooking to prevent burning. Be sure the caramels are cooked enough. It will take at least twenty minutes to cook the syrup.

Says His Prescription

Has Powerful Influence

Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen, of 26 Forbes St., Rochester, N. Y., suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of "senseless" study, that no one can be "free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allenrub, to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed Voigt's Drug Store and druggists everywhere to dispense Allenrub with the understanding that if his prescription does not banish every sign and symptom of the disease he will gladly return your money without comment.

TWO MEN HURT BY ACCIDENTAL DYNAMITE BLAST

BIG CAST READY FOR SPECTACULAR NATIVITY STORY

Charge of Explosive Is Set Off Just as Men Got Ready to Quit for Day.

Nearly 400 Children Will Take Part in Public School Christmas Program.

Kaukauna—Two men were slightly injured by an accidental discharge of dynamite late Tuesday afternoon at the Kaunakia dam where a powder plant is being constructed.

The men were getting ready to quit at 7 o'clock when one of them struck an electric wire with a shovel or else let a hanging fuse fall on the dynamite. The explosion was so great that the men were thrown into the air and it was soon discovered that one was seriously injured. One man was struck in the forehead with a piece of flying rock and this necessitated the taking of three stitches and another man was thrown into a ditch and his leg was badly injured.

Rumors were current in Kaukauna Wednesday that a large number of men had been killed at the Kaunakia dam and all sorts of tales were told as to how the accident occurred. One story was that a wagon had come to the dynamite house and blown up the whole crew.

TWO TEAMS TIED FOR LEAD IN CITY LEAGUE

Kaukauna—The Kaukauna lumber bowling team, displaying some of its last years' championship stuff, defeated the Runtz team three games Tuesday evening and rolled into a tie for first place with the Bankers. The Bankers, off form dropped two to Andrews Ole. Mueller Boats spoiled the Runtz team's chance for a tie for first when they capped the last two games in a winning finish.

The Runtz team, which has been serving from last time to the Vandergrast Creams and thereby fell into the cellar.

Highest single game honors went to Joseph Steger of the Vandergrast Creams who rolled 216. He was easily pushed by E. Brewster with 217. High in three games went to Walter of the Mueller Boats who hit the pins for a count of 348. His scores were 114, 192 and 212.

FIREMEN CALLED OUT FOR TWO CHIMNEY FIRES

Kaukauna—The fire department answered two calls Wednesday evening. The first call came at 7 o'clock from the home of W. H. Paerdy and the second was at 9 o'clock to an apartment house on Fourth street which is occupied by four families. Both were chimney fires. No damage was caused.

NAME OMITTED

Kaukauna—Through an error the name of Miss Cordell Runtz was omitted from the program which was presented at the Christmas meeting of the Kaukauna Women's club Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Louis Nelson. Miss Runtz presented a vocal solo.

ENGLISH CLASS AGAIN WINS THRIFT BANNER

Kaukauna—The English III class at the high school again capped the 100 per cent banner for bank day this week. Although two other classes also earned 100 per cent, this class was awarded the banner because it had deposited the largest amount of money. The other 100 per cent classes are Domestic Science I and II.

The total amount deposited by the school this week fell below the record of last week, totaling $37.03. The total per centage for the entire school was 47.

SKATING RINKS COMPLETED SOON

Ice Will Be Ready for Use by End of Week, City Officials Say.

Kaukauna—Workmen, under the supervision of the street commission, started this week to flood the playgrounds of Park school and Nicolet school for municipal ice skating rinks.

According to Thomas Reardon, street commissioner of the north side, workmen will finish the work Friday of this week providing the weather remains cold and the water freezes.

The men have been working nights in an effort to get finished as soon as possible.

Children have been looking for skating places, and although Reichel's is a favorite, many of them complain that it is too far to walk and besides there are too many skaters for so small a place.

Many of the children have tried skating on the Fox river but this is dangerous and most parents won't let their children go near the river. With the opening of the municipal rink, however, hazard will be done away with.

Four is banked around the plot to be flooded and then the workmen use fine spray hose and slowly cover the rink time after time until it is ready to use. This method gives the finest and smoothest surface for skating. The popularity of Kaukauna's municipal rinks was proved last year by the large crowds that used them. Many people came here from nearby cities to try out the rinks.

3 PUPILS PUT MORE TIME IN SCHOOL THAN NEEDED

Kaukauna—Only three students of the Kaukauna vocational school are listed on the "over 100 per cent" roll, that is they spent more time at the school than is required by law. These three pupils are Leon Bahdeau, Mary Jockel and Myra Lorenson.

Other students who have perfect attendance records for November are: Esther Horning, Marie De Young, Marie Bauer, Rosella Frank, Viola Mitchell, Ethel De Coster, Lillian Chopin, Iva Kilgas, Rosella Williams, Caroline Pahl, Vilga O'Parke, Harriet Barkers, Jennie Voss, Lorretta Joseph, Mary Renotte, Marie Heister, Joseph Vogt, Minnie Jacobs, Catherine Paul, Cornelius Huep, Harold Jacobson, Henry Van der West, Anton Hermann, Everett Driessen, Leslie Schumann, Ambrose Heinz, Myron Dreger, Karl Kessler, Albert Kersten, Herman Griesman, Patterson Motson, Leonard Bergmann, Floyd Letten, Willis Schuler, Wilfred Weyers, Charles Schumann, John Conlin, Harry Thers, Harvey Reichel, Harold Hart, Peter Mathis.

BREAKS ARM

Kaukauna—Shipping on a piece of ice about 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Walter Romensack fell and suffered a broken arm. The accident occurred at her home.

NEW LONDON DEATHS

GEISHEIMER FUNERAL

New London—Funeral services for Joseph W. Geisheimer, long time resident of New London who died Sunday night at his home on Lawrence-st, were conducted from Holy Trinity English Lutheran church at 1:30 Thursday. The Rev. J. Richard Olson pastor of the congregation was in charge. Brief services were held at the home.

Mr. Geisheimer was born in Russian Poland Aug. 23, 1850, and immigrated to America in 1888. He was married Nov. 8, 1874 to Miss Marie Renner. They celebrated their golden wedding a year ago.

Eleven children were born to the family of which four died in the old country, and seven are surviving. These are: Amanda Willet, New London; Adolph and Fred, Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. Marie Dallen, Omaha; Mrs. Tillie Blach, Milwaukee; Mrs. Emily Hess, New York city; Mrs. Wilhelmine, Cleveland; Mrs. Geisheimer, the widow, and nine grandchildren also survive.

Bearers were Herman Cook, Fred Noack, Donald Tail, Herman Beckman, Ed. Becker and Andrew Anderson. Special music was given by the chorus choir of Holy Trinity church. Interment was made in New London cemetery.

THE Tuesday Afternoon Sewing club held a Christmas party Tuesday afternoon at the Municipal building. After the program refreshments were served and a large Christmas tree was decorated.

Mrs. Martin Van Roy entertained the U. G. I. Go club at her home Wednesday afternoon. Prizes at cards were won by Mrs. Joseph Edwards Mrs. Curn, Mrs. E. and Mrs. John Hordman.

The Lady Macabees will hold a Christmas party on Dec. 21. The party will be held at 6:30 at the Foresters hall.

EXTRA MAIL CARRIERS IN CHRISTMAS SEASON

Kaukauna—Owing to the increase in the amount of mail during the Christmas season, each city carrier will have a helper, according to R. Mills, postmaster. The extra carriers will start work about Saturday of this week.

"The mail early campaign has brought results," said Postmaster Mills, "as we are receiving large shipments of mail, especially parcel post packages marked 'Do not open until Christmas.' Next week the great rush of cards will start and will continue until Christmas day, in fact many cards will come on Christmas day. This year the mailman will not have to work Christmas day and therefore mail coming on Christmas day will not be delivered unless it is sent special delivery."

Remove Brush on Golf Ground

New Course Is Being Put in Shape — Full Membership Soon Signed.

Special to Post-Crescent

New London—Cleaning up of the golf course of the newly organized New London Golf club is about completed. Progress in clearing off surplus timber and removing stumps has been made for the last three weeks.

The membership committee of the club is highly optimistic over the fact that the membership limit of 65 or 70 members set sometime ago has nearly been reached. Members are being recruited regularly, and the opening of the golf season in the spring will find a full club ready to start.

AUTO ACCIDENT
FATAL TO FARMER

Ferdinand A. Haese; Wrightstown, Suffers Fractured Skull.

Special to Post-Crescent
Wrightstown—Ferdinand A. Haese, a retired farmer here, died of a fractured skull at 4 o'clock Tuesday morning in a Green Bay hospital about nine hours after he was struck while near Wrightstown high school on highway 96 by a motor car driven by Theodore Kersten of Hollandtown.

According to the story obtained by Deputy M. E. Ryan who investigated the case for District Attorney Raymond Everard, Mr. Haese has hit at about seven o'clock Monday night as he was stooping over on the pavement in the road to pick up pieces of candy which had fallen from a sack he was carrying. The candy was intended for Mr. Haese's grandchildren and had been bought in Wrightstown before the man started to walk south on the road to his farm home near the village.

Mr. Kersten noticed the man bending over. His first thought was that of an attempt at holdup. Another car was coming from the opposite way, and in trying to avoid running into it, Kersten struck Mr. Haese. Ellsworth Hart, a dentist of Wrightstown was driving the other car. Dr. Frank Salva, a dentist was with him and saw the car strike the man. Hart turned his own machine around to follow, as Kersten had stopped and then driven on. When Hart overtook Kersten's car about 400 feet away, the body of Haese was found caught under the chassis. Kersten could not see Haese when he looked around and fearing a holdup drove to a driveway to turn around and flash his lights on the scene. Hart pulled up just then and they found the man.

An inquest was held at the courthouse Tuesday afternoon in Green Bay and Kersten was held blameless. Mr. Haese was born April 28 1861 at Reedsville and had lived here more than 30 years. He is survived by his only son Reinhardt, three grandchildren: five brothers, John, Charles and Albert, Reedsville; Fred, Billings, Or. to Quincy, Ill.; four sisters, Mrs. Mary Bullock, Reedsville; Mrs. Caroline Ruch, West Bend; Mrs. August Zayhorfer, Marshfield; Mrs. Louis Lucike, Curtis.

The funeral will be held from the house at 12:30 Friday and at 1 o'clock from St. John Lutheran church. The Rev. P. T. Uetzmann will be in charge and burial will be made in the Lutheran cemetery.

Mr. Haese had lived with his son Reinhardt on the farm since the death of his wife five years ago.

WISCONSIN
DEATHS

GUENTHER FUNERAL
Weyauwega — Funeral services for August Guenther were held from the St. Peter Lutheran church at 1:30 Tuesday afternoon, with the Rev. M. Hensel in charge.

The decedent was born Feb. 15, 1864, at Oshkosh. On Nov. 2, 1924 he was united in marriage to Nora Ball at Dale. For the last 11 years he and his family have lived on a farm in the town of Roylston.

Besides his widow, he leaves three sons, Arnold, New London; Walter at home; Alexander, Fremont; three daughters, Mrs. Willis Webb, Kenosha; Vera and Evelyn at home; one brother, Julius, Readfield; two sisters, Mrs. August Zehm, Chicago and Mrs. G. C. Scholtz, Oshkosh; one half-brother, Otto Guenther, Wausau, and one half sister, Mrs. Thomas Schubert, Shiocton.

Interment was in Oakwood cemetery.

ASKS YEGGS TO RETURN
GOODS IF THEY WISH

Philadelphia—(AP)—A Philadelphia store that was robbed invited the burglars to bring back the goods they took if not found satisfactory.

Realizing the power of advertising the store inserted a display ad in local papers headed "Notice To the Burglars Who Robbed Our Store." The notice said:
"You boys are not using your powers of observation. (An unpardonable trait in any burglar.) If you had read our advertisements and noticed our very low prices you could have saved yourself the trouble of 'breaking in' to get the things you wanted. We are glad to know, however, that you prefer OUR merchandise. Every article in our store is absolutely guaranteed by us—whether you buy it or steal it makes no difference. If what you fellows took does not give you good service, bring it back and we will make it good—with the assistance of General Butler."
"P. S.—Special reception for burglars calling after our store is closed. Bring your friends along."

ETON PUPILS HAVE AS MANY LAWS AS LESSONS

Eton, Eng.—(AP)—New boys entering Eton college are confronted with as many rules and regulations as lessons. They find they may only walk in certain places; they are forbidden to go to any race course in the neighborhood or walk on the river bank during Windsor races, and they are forbidden to go into any wine merchants, tobacconists or pawnshops.
No hotel, public-house, private house, house-boat or lunch may be entered by boys without the express leave of their house tutor. All shops are "out of bounds" on Sundays.

EDMUND LOWE STARS

IN THRILLING DRAMA

In "Marriage in Transit," the thrilling mystery romance in which the famous Fox star, Edmund Lowe is to appear at the New Bijou theatre Friday and Saturday the work of the United States Secret Service in recovering a code stolen by a band of conspirators for sale to an European nation are revealed in a most sensational manner.

"Marriage in Transit" is a sensational revelation of the dangerous tasks sometimes accomplished by members of the United States Secret Service when called upon to outwit the rascals who are constantly plotting to endanger the nation by selling its secrets to foreign countries.

Mr. Fox has given to the popular star a superb production and a powerful surrounding cast. "Marriage in Transit" is certain to be one of the most compellingly popular of the Lowe pictures.

JULIAN BLINKE SAYS

"HIS ROLE IN BIG COMEDY

"MADAM BEHAVE" IS FINE

Julian Blinke, the world's most famous woman impersonator and for twenty years past a reigning stage success, says he is delighted with his role in Al Christie's latest comedy production, "Madam Behave," in which he is featured with Ann Pennington, the celebrated Polles dancer, and which will be on view at the Escorial's Appleton Theatre Christmas Day for a 3 day's run. "I like this comedy," said Blinke in a recent interview. "In fact I revel in my role because it gets away from the endless gown display that I've carried on my back for years on the stage. You see, in the film, practically all the action takes place the same day, and the comedy comes so thick and fast there's no time to stop and change one's clothes."

"What a relief! Once I'm in shorts and the plot is under way, the action never stops. Climbing trees, being wooed (when being as the supposed missing woman) by Lionel Blincoe and Jack Duffy, and at the same time trying to keep my identity from Ann Pennington while I'm in dress. And, also, I'm doing my best to get out of my skirts and into my trousers so I can make love to her. That's how busy I am in the picture. It's great, and packed with laughs."

This photoplay will be shown in conjunction with four acts of Vaudeville.

NEW ORLEANS MARDI
GRAS FILM FEATURE

"The Scarlet Saint," a swiftly moving story of love and intrigue, set in New Orleans during Mardi Gras week, with its picturesque carnival and its famous racing meet, is the attraction at the Elite theater today and tomorrow.

Adapted from Gerald Beaumont's famous story, "The Lady Who Played Fidele," the picture deals with the dramatic romance of a young American who is forced to marry a much older man, a foreigner, to save her sweetheart from jail.

Replete with action from start to finish, the picture depicts several incidents of a most unusual nature. Among these are actual scenes taken by First National cameramen in New Orleans during last winter's annual Mardi Gras carnival. Many members of the finest families in the South appear in these scenes. Exciting racing scenes photographed at the famous Belmont race track furnish real thrills.

Heading an excellent cast are Mary Astor and Lloyd Hughes. They are supported by Frank Morgan, Ted Prouty, Antrim Short, Lorna Duveen, George Neville and Jack Raymond. George Archambaud directed.

TRAMP PRINTER STILL HERE BUT OF NOVEL TYPE

Blind Baggage Traveler Extinct - Automobile Tourist
Typist in His Place

Indianapolis. (AP) The "tramp printer," that colorful character of great wanderlust, has not disappeared from the annals of James M. Lynch, president of the International Typographical union, and he offers records to prove it.

"The type has changed, but the 'tramp' is still with us," said Mr. Lynch. "The difference is that the traveling type, who once made the trunk and the blind baggage new, spins his yarn along in his own automobile and is seldom 'trapped' any more."

Somebody in America does not usually need the pressing of the last of the old-time tramp printers. Some one is always going to run the press of the picturesque in order to reflect glamor on the past. The fact is that more traveling cards are being issued to union printers today than were issued at any time in the past.

"The tramp printer of the old days was highly useful as well as romantic. He carried the printed word into the dark places of the earth. He came into contact with the best minds of the age and travel broadened his outlook. Unfortunately his mode of life tended to enhance his imagination and his travelogues sometimes extended to free-handed fiction, but he was a genial, lovable type and practically never vicious."

"The traveling printer of today manages things much better. He is seldom without money and he usually studies conditions of business before entering into new and untried fields. His union card establishes his competency and he is assured of work as a 'sub' when he arrives in a new town."

Mr. Lynch was asked if he believed the traveling propensity of printers was good for them.

"No, not as a continuous performance. Thrift and steadiness are virtues that outweigh all others as craftsmanly possessions, but the exchange of ideas on craft methods is undoubtedly good for the trade."

CROWN PRINCE'S EXILE IS JOINED TO MAINLAND

Amsterdam. (AP) — Weening, which achieved world wide notoriety through the place of exile of the German ex-crown prince William, is an island no more.

It now forms part of the Dutch Zuydersee drainage scheme. A newly laid dam, 1 1/2 miles in length, now unites Weening with the mainland. This is, however, only a small beginning. It now takes Holland 30 years before realizing her ambition to add 1,000 square miles to her territory by reclaiming the Zuydersee, a project estimated to cost $10,000,000.

DRY ERA PUTS END TO FRISCO "CLIFF HOUSE"

Noted Resort at Golden Gate
Has Entertained Five United States Presidents

San Francisco. (AP) — San Francisco's Cliff House, known for generations wherever bon vivants gathered, has given up the losing fight, its various managements credit its demise to prohibition.

Old-time San Franciscans, sitting over their ice cream sodas, recall that the cliff house always has been one of the cardinal features of the city, a point of interest demanded by every tourist.

The first Cliff House was built in 1863, and, since, there has been some sort of a restaurant there most of the time. The site is magnificent. High above the ocean, beside the Golden Gate, it looks down on the famous Seal Rocks and commands a great stretch of sea and shore line. The house is the first building sighted by

The Best Cough Syrup Is Home-made

Here's an easy way to save $2, and yet have best cough medicine you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? Thousands of families the world over, feel that they could hardly keep house without it. It's simple and cheap but the way it takes hold of a cough will soon earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a pint bottle, pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the pint. Or, if desired, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never spoils, and gives you a full pint of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times its cost.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, heats the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. approaching ships and the last seen by departing ones.

The present structure, built in 1909 is the third of a series started in the '80s. The previous buildings were burned. For decades the Cliff House was noted for its cuisine. In the pre-motor era blooded trotters took their owners to fashionable gatherings there. It was "the" drive for San Franciscans of that day, the miles of scenic road between the city and the entrance to San Francisco Bay.

Among the personages who were entertained at the Cliff House were five presidents.

In recent years there had been a steady decline in the prestige of the place. About a year ago it was made into a combination restaurant and coffee house. This dying effort failed. The building is for rent.

There is talk among prominent citizens of petitioning the city to purchase the property and fit it into an observatory park.

WANT CITY TO BUY LANGSTADT-MEYER BUILDING

URGE COUNCIL TO BUY BEFORE COST GOES UP

Aldermen Advised to Again Consider Diagonal Street to Junction

Foresight or the possible lack of foresight of the common council was challenged in two projects that were brought before it at the regular meeting Wednesday evening, one, the purchase of land in block 81 for part of the right-of-way on a new diagonal street to Appleton Junction and the other the acquiring of the Langstadt Meyer Co. building on E. Washington-st for a fire station and other city purposes. The council discussed both proposals and voted to make a personal inspection of each at the call of Mayor John Goodland, Jr., in the near future.

Please made by F. S. Bradford and Prof. O. P. Fairfield, members of the city planning commission, caused renewed consideration of purchase of the land, for a street, and an address to the council by Alderman Mark Catlin caused the fire station proposal to become an active issue.

About a month ago the council voted against purchasing land which lies in the triangle of S. Mueller and W. Lenox-st south of the Chicago and Northwestern railroad tracks. The track is to be platted into lots by Kimberly Real Estate Co. The city plan prepared in 1922 by Leonard E. Smith provided for a diagonal street from College-ave to the junction, parallel to the railway for quick transportation for industries and other business places.

PRaises Zone Law

Mr. Bradford declared that the zoning law ought to be carried out in its full spirit by the city. The planning commission had found that it was working satisfactorily and was a splendid thing for Appleton, he said.

"You hear only the knocks," he declared. "You ought to hear the comments in your favor also. Where one man in a block tries to do something that will harm the property of the others living there, all the rest of the people affected are rejoicing because the zoning law stops him."

Mr. Bradford reminded the council that all of the large manufacturing establishments of the future should be built in the west end and that some day a union railroad station would be located there. A diagonal street will take heavy traffic from Cherry, Prospect and other residence streets. A street should be made now by getting the 60 feet of land in block 81, which, it is understood, would cost $1,200. It is possible, he believed, that enough land some day could be obtained where the old Reliance motor plant is located so the street can be opened all the way. The city surely will get its money's worth in the change and a step will be taken toward beautifying the city by having a nice street to gaze at from the windows of incoming trains.

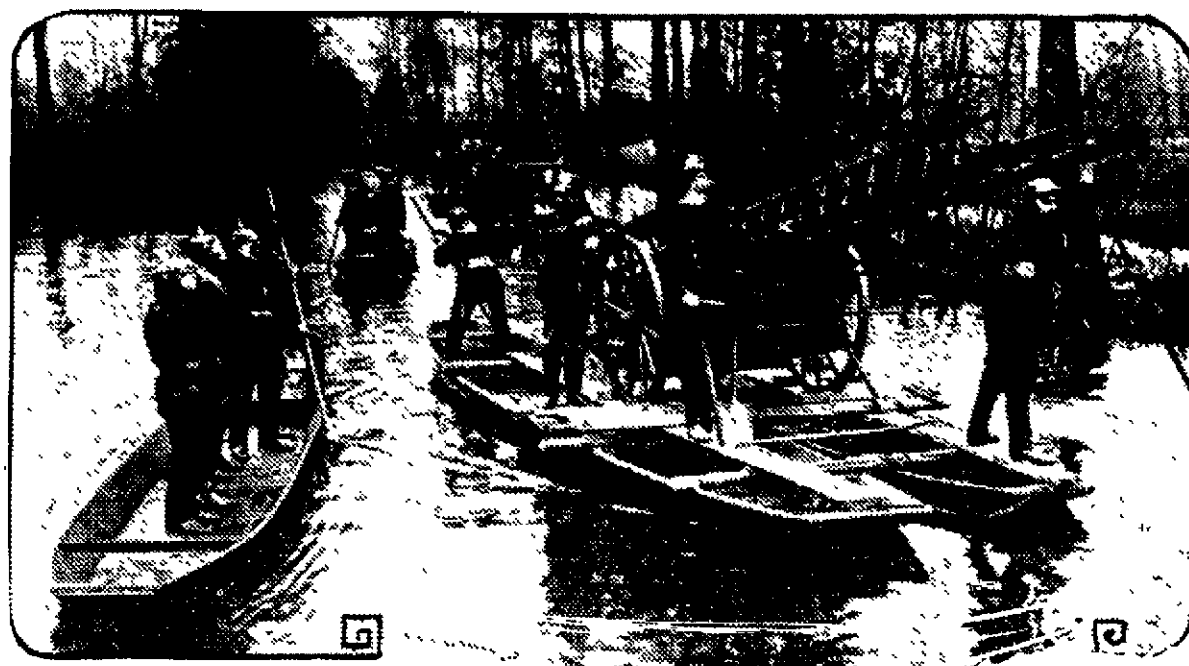

Possible traffic congestion of the future must be considered by the council, Prof. Fairfield said in speaking of the need of the diagonal street. He said diagonal streets not only are a convenience but they break monotony of cities, and buildings which may be located there obtain more sunlight than those placed exactly according to the compass.

Perhaps a greater argument for the diagonal street would be the saving in distance, the professor pointed out. The route to the junction by way of W. Prospect-ave is about 6,000 feet, while this would be reduced to 4,000 feet by the short cut, a saving of one-third. He said he understands the city could obtain land from W. Spencer-st to the junction now at an approximate cost of $5,000 and that portion of the diagonal street could be completed, the remainder as far as W. College-ave to come sometime later.

The importance of the diagonal street was expressed when he said, "If we don't do this now and the council accepts the plan which is proposed for this land, then we are stopped in the city plan except for the possibility of paying five, ten or fifteen times as much as now. I am a member of the park board and I am anxious to see the council give that organization all the help it can. However, I feel the need of this diagonal street so keenly that I would be in favor of delaying the improvement of Pierce park rather than let this matter fall."

Alderman C. D. Thompson stood with the planning commission. He told how the city had failed to buy the Conkey lot on Allen and Kimball-sts when a chance was offered and the Trinity Lutheran church now stands where the city plan provided in part for a civic center. He said a diagonal roadway was desirable for all the trucking that takes place and also could see no need of a viaduct. The

WISCONSIN WEATHER

Partly cloudy to cloudy tonight and Friday, slowly rising temperature Friday in west and central portions.

WEATHER CONDITIONS

The pressure is high this morning over the western plains from Manitoba to Texas. The weather is fair over the southern plains but unsettled in the north. The entire "High" now appears to be moving slowly southward, and is followed by lower pressure over the northern Rockies and Canadian northwest, and this movement will favor a continuation of cloudiness and more unsettled weather in this section over Friday. No great changes in temperature are anticipated, though a slow moderation may be experienced by Friday, as the crest of the "High" passes this section.

city plan calls for residences only south of the railroad and all property to the north still is available for industries. Industrial development would be at the junction and this must be taken into consideration.

Early action was urged by Alderman George T. Richard, who believed the city plan should be followed and Kimberly Real Estate Co. given assurance soon as to how its land can be platted. Alderman Mike Steinhilber favored the project and Alderman Wenzel Hausmann and Mark Catlin urged personal inspection by the council. A motion by the latter brought a decision to visit the place.

Alderman Catlin then took up the Langstadt-Meyer Co. matter declaring that this building extending from E. Washington to E. Johnson-st is to be sold and that a bus company is negotiating for some of the land for a terminal. This property is about the only available place left in the downtown district and the city owned part of it once. There should be foresight now before it is too late and immense prices must be paid for property. The city hall must some day be located elsewhere, the alderman declared, and he laid particular stress on the fact that the fire and police departments were located in a poor place. Eventually the city must consider a joint city and county building, as the courthouse is in convenient for every department in it, there is no municipal court jury room, the county board has no suitable place to meet and the situation is really a disgrace to a county as wealthy as this one.

The police and fire stations cover an area of 5,300 square feet, said Mr. Catlin, and the Langstadt Meyer Co. building, with 45 feet of lot frontage to the west represent an area of about 25,000 square feet, with a building of two stories and basement. An appraisal set the price within $1,000 of the actual cost of the building and grounds. It was said that the building would be ideal for the fire department, because it could be arranged so trucks could go out in four directions. It might not be feasible to have the police station in the same building, he said, but plenty of land was available there for one. Somebody will buy because it must be sold, said Mr. Catlin, and the city ought to consider this fact seriously. Other aldermen agreed, except that Mr. Foss contended a fire department alone there would be an expensive one. On motion the council decided to visit the building and see for itself. All aldermen will consult taxpayers as to their views in the meantime.

Fred F. Wettengel addressed the council after listening to the discussion and declared that the best move the city could make would be to buy the ravine west of Superior-st from College-ave to Washington-st. The city had refused to buy other property which had risen to twice the value now, and there should be no lack of foresight now. He said the ravine is being filled up and will have to be dug out again. The city should have it and erect a community building. A parking area also might be provided there he said.

FALLING POLE CARRIES YOUNG MAN TO DEATH

Kaukauna Lineman Fatally Injured When Cable Pole Breaks as He Works Near Top.

Kaukauna—John Zink, 27, Seventh st, city electrical department employe, lived just 60 minutes after his back was broken by a falling cable post on which he had been working Thursday morning.

Zink, a lineman had climbed an old pole at the old bridge at Wisconsin-ave to remove the arms preparatory to laying a cable over the new bridge. Apparently he was unaware that the post had become rotten. Without warning it snapped off and fell in the direction the guy wire was pulling. As Zink fell the pole crashed down upon him and broke it. The fall was about 20 feet.

He was taken immediately to a near by house and a physician was summoned. It was impossible to save him, however. The injured man saw his wife and his mother as he lay dying. The injured man saw his wife and his mother as he lay dying. The fall occurred at about 10:30 and the man was dead at 11:20.

CRUELTY

Dining a husband on seven course dinners for $7.50 a week is impossible

Mrs. Elsie Ottoline 18, of Toledo, has found it impossible to live on a divorce suit, charging neglect and cruelty. She came right back with a divorce petition, and says any man who gives his wife only $7.50 a week and then expects seven course dinners is worse than cruel. Ottoline says he is of royal lineage and was a German officer during the war.

NAME OSHKOSH MAN AS BANKRUPTCY TRUSTEE

Charles D. Breon of Oshkosh was elected trustee at a meeting of creditors of Otto J. Pautz, bankrupt Appleton grocer, Tuesday afternoon in the office of C. J. Behnke, referee in bankruptcy. Bond for the trustee was fixed at $2,000. A. G. Downer, W. G. Kianpusch, and L. C. Jens were appointed as appraisers. Mr. Pautz, who operated a grocery store at 235 N. Appleton-st filed a voluntary bankruptcy petition two weeks ago. Assets were listed at $3,230 and liabilities at $9,599.90.

COULDN'T GET TEAM TO PLAY AT KIMBERLY

The volleyball game scheduled to be played by members of the 515 Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday business men's class of the Y. M. C. A. and the Kimberly-Clark Paper Co. team Wednesday noon at the Kimberly clubhouse was postponed. Inability to get a good Y. M. C. A. team together to meet the crack Kimberly men on such short notice was the cause of the postponement. The game will be played after the Christmas holidays.

HI-CLUB HAS PERFECT ATTENDANCE RECORD

Every member of Appleton Hi-Y club attended the regular meeting of the group Wednesday evening at the Y. M. C. A., giving the club 100 per cent attendance and 200 points in its December attendance contest with the Green Bay Hi-Y. No reports have been received from Green Bay on its attend-

Cuticura Heals Eczema In Rash All Over Baby's Body

"Eczema broke out in a rash all over my baby's face, scalp and body. It itched and burned badly and when he scratched it caused eruptions. I had to pin his hands down to keep him from scratching. His face was disfigured, and his clothing aggravated the breaking out. He was cross and fretful and would he awake nights and keep me awake."

"I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. It helped him so I purchased more and after using three cakes of Soap and two boxes of Ointment he was healed." (Signed) Mrs. John Hintze, 1614 W. Lombard St., Davenport, Iowa.

Clear the pores of impurities by daily use of Cuticura Soap, with touches of Cuticura Ointment as needed to soothe and heal. Cuticura Talcum is fragrant and refreshing.

Soap 25c Ointment 25c and 50c Talcum 25c. Sold everywhere. Sample each free. Address: Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. 10, Station, Mass.

FOND DU LAC IS ASK PUBLIC TO DOWNED IN SHARP BASKETBALL TILT

Pails Come Back Strong in Final Quarter to Defeat Fountain City.

Menasha—Menasha Athletic association city team trounced the Fond du Lac Moose team of the Eastern Wisconsin Basketball League, 7 to 5 in Menasha auditorium Wednesday night in a sharply contested battle.

At the end of the first half Fond du Lac led by a 2 to 1 score. Fond du Lac scored 9 in the third quarter and Menasha came through in the last quarter with two field goals making the final score 7 to 5.

Rommel, Grove and Raleigh of the local team scored field goals and Heyes a free throw and all performed excellently. Harbridge scored the only field goal for the visitors and also annexed a free throw. In the curtain raiser the Hot Spots defeated the Menasha Printing & Carton Electrobs by a score of 8 to 4.

The Athletic team will meet the Fond du Lac team Saturday night on its home floor.

SOCIAL ITEMS AT MENASHA

Menasha—The Elks held a card party Tuesday afternoon. Bridge was played and the prizes were won by Mrs. Edward Smith and Mrs. E. Pollock. Because of the holidays the next party will be held Jan. 12.

More than 70 persons attended the Christmas party given by the Commercial club Wednesday evening at the high school building. The short-hand room was handsomely decorated. A Christmas tree was one of the features. Gifts were distributed by Santa Claus. The program included games and dancing. Howard Hare won a prize for making the best Santa Claus, and a group, the best, won a box of candy. Lunch was served in the domestic science room.

John Island was elected venerable counselor at the annual meeting of the Winnebago camp of Modern Woodmen of America. Other officers elected were Past counselor, Henry Shoen; adviser, Martin Weisenbrenner; clerk, Richard O'Brien; clerk, Peter P. Novak; escort, George Daniels; watchman, John Remick; sentry, Steve Reelmann; physician, W. P. McGrath; trustees, Charles Horn, Herman Hedendich.

Menasha Printing & Carton company entertained more than 170 employees at its annual dinner and Christmas party Tuesday at its gymnasium on Taylor-st. Santa Claus was one of the guests.

Philip Gazecki was surprised at a stag party Wednesday evening at his home on First-st. in honor of his birthday anniversary. Schalkopf and rumming were played and the prizes were won by Erwin Treiber, Harry Kosloske, Frank Pankratz and Erwin Schmaltz.

The second meeting of the Vocational girls club was held Wednesday evening at the high school meeting. A short business meeting was held, but most of the business was postponed until the next meeting because the girls were anxious to meet Santa Claus.

The committee consisting of Hattie Dombrowski, Anna Novak and Gertrude Powlowski planned a program consisting of games and Christmas music. After the program the members sat around the lighted Christmas tree and listened to Christmas music until Santa Claus arrived.

Santa insisted on being entertained for a short while so a clever Irish ballad was given by Rose Danek, on which Santa played yule-tide tunes on the harmonica while the girls sang. Santa then distributed gifts, which included bags of candy, nuts, cracker-jack and apples.

ST. THOMAS SCOUTS TO HOLD THREE DAY CAMP

Menasha—The annual winter camp of St. Thomas boy scouts Troop No. 3 will be held Dec. 25, 26 and 27 at cabin on the east shore of Lake Winnebago, according to Albert Dubois, scoutmaster. The greater part of the week will be devoted to tests and outdoor sports. The troop will be accompanied by P. O. Koehler, valley scout executive.

INSTALL MURDER

Menasha—Vocational school clothing students were pleased this week when they went to classes and found a full length mirror in the dressing room. This has long been a necessity, but it did not materialize until now and will make a man a better man for the girls when fitting garments. The stand for the mirror was made in the manual training department under the supervision of L. E. Kraft.

POSTPONE DANCE FOR CELLUCOTTON EMPLOYEES

Neenah—The dance which was to have been given next Wednesday evening in the new building erected by Cellucotton Co. has been postponed until after Christmas. The building will not be completed until that time. The party will be for employees in the Cellucotton and other plants of the Kimberly-Clark Co.

BUTCHERS NAME KRAMER PRESIDENT OF UNION

Neenah—Ernest Kramer was elected president of the Butchers' union at a meeting Wednesday evening at Eagle hall. Other officers elected were Alvin Pitzer, vice president, W. Dunlop, secretary, Benjamin Bender, treasurer, Joseph Leandowski, guard, David Walker, secretary, guide, Charles Becker, August Jago, and Paul Rothe, trustees. Arrangements were made at the meeting for a social session to follow installation of officers at the next meeting.

ERECT CHRISTMAS TREE

Neenah—A large Christmas tree has been placed at west end of Wisconsin by Bergstrom Paper Co. Electric lights of various colors are being placed upon the tree to be lighted every night until after the holidays.

Scott Turner of Lansing, Mich., is the new director of the federal bureau of mines, and will reorganize the bureau under plans recently approved at Washington. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan and the Michigan College of Mines.

HERRIN REFORMS AFTER YEARS OF MUCH BLOODSHED

Elimination of Gun Toters. Religious Revival Bring Back Peaceful Days

Herrin, Ill.—(AP)—A sign in a store window reads "Former Herrin tailor returned; first under a new name." It is a sign of the times in Herrin. Change the name and there would be few visible indications that here is the town that wrote its name in blood. They are returning to Herrin—the people who went away while the "war" raged, and the town is trying to heal its wounds. Ten widows, 28 orphans, and 13 dead men are hard to forget.

Among many reasons for the town's comeback these are outstanding: Elimination of the champion gun toter; a religious revival; a return of activity in the coal fields.

There are many other signs of regeneration. Bank deposits in two weeks jumped $50,000. Two children's stores opened branch houses, one a grocery concern, the other a national music house.

At the beginning of the coal season three banks were handling a monthly payroll of more than $700,000. In 1924 there were 47 mines operating in Williamson county, producing almost 10 million tons of coal a year and employing more than 12,000 miners. In 1925 more than 20 mines closed. The mines are opening rapidly. Stores are starting up. Empty houses are being occupied.

It is estimated 200 families left Herrin during the intervening strife. Property depreciated 50 per cent. There were bank uptakes, stagnation and despair.

This I applied while 15 per cent of the citizens looked on in horror at their own town gone wild, helpless to stop it, yet hearing equally with the fighters the evil reputation.

Despite the signs of commercial restoration there are others. Gospel quotations are posted in public places. On over 60 cashiers' windows in the leading hotel is familiar.

"For what is a man profited if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?"

A wild, dirty little mining town is the picture of Herrin that has gone out into the world. A clean, cultured, naturally prosperous city of 12,000 is the fact.

The local chamber of commerce says that Herrin has a higher percentage of home owners than any city in the United States.

The disastrous southern Illinois tornado of several months ago, which did not hit Herrin, but brought foes into contact in a work of mercy, was an ill wind that blew good to Herrin.

Some of the leaders in Herrin's troublous days were strangers. S. Glenn Young, who tried to clean the town with a gun, was a stranger. Howard S. Williams, revivalist, who tried it last summer with a Bible, was a stranger. Many strangers were among the leaders of the Karpis massacre of June, 1922, which occurred about half way between Herrin and Marion.

WOMAN PASSES BAD CHECK AND ELUDES POLICE

Becomes Alarmed While Check Is Investigated and Flees from Store.

Neenah—A woman bogus check artist attempted to ply her trade here Tuesday afternoon. She was detected while attempting to secure money on a forged check at the Jandrey store, but she escaped.

Using the name of Mrs. George Early, the young woman called at the Meyer Bootery where she made a purchase amounting to $7 and gave a check on Manufacturers Bank for $15. The name of Miss Lilli Matheson of this city, was signed to the paper. She then went to the Jandrey store where she purchased more goods and gave a check for $10. The long wait for her "change" caused her to be alarmed and she left the store without securing the money. In the meantime, the fields of the Jandrey store called Miss Matheson and found that she had not issued the check. Officers were called but the woman had disappeared.

It is understood that similar cases had been reported by merchants in Appleton, according to information received by Chief of Police Watts from Chief G. T. Prim.

BADGES GIVEN IN SCOUT COURT

Twenty Take Examinations and Gain Promotions or Merit Awards.

Neenah—Twenty boy scouts belonging to Twin City troops were examined before a court of honor conducted by Valley council, Boy Scouts of America, at Neenah city hall Wednesday evening. Several were passed to first class rank, several to second and others received merit badges.

The full court of honor ceremonial was used for the first time by Dr. J. M. Donovan, chairman of the Neenah and Menasha district committee. He was assisted by members of Neenah and Menasha committees, scoutmasters and assistants, 12 members of troop No. 7 of St. Mary church, and Paul O. Koehler, valley executive.

Tests for first class scout badges were passed by George Holzknecht, Anthony Thelen, Charles Schultz, Donald Rusch, Edward Walburn, Arthur Hahnen, Austin Longworth, Owen Sennsbranner, Floyd Longworth, and Lylo Eckrich.

Second class badges were awarded to Raymond Belmer, Clement Massey, James Grode, Edward McGellan, William King, Robert Schultz, Sylvester Weinke and Robert Heckner.

Those receiving merit badges were: Dale Clough, firemanship, safety first, first aid to animals; Henry Stowe, camping, handicraft; Robert Rusch, public health, life saving, athletics, swimming, electricity, safety first aid, personal health; Fred Holzknecht, personal health, physical development, first aid.

INCOME ASSESSOR IS TO MOVE FROM OSHKOSH

Neenah—The office of J. E. Worthing, assessor of incomes, is soon to be removed from Oshkosh to Fond du Lac. It is reported upon good authority. Mr. Worthing has been serving both counties with an office in both cities. The change is expected to take place soon after the first of the year.

SEND 25 BOXES TO SOLDIER PATIENTS

Neenah—Twenty-five boxes filled with useful articles have been prepared by girls of home economics classes of the high school for shipment to the veterans' hospital in Waukesha as Christmas presents for soldiers confined in that institution. The boxes were prepared upon recommendation of the local branch of the Red Cross.

Pile Sufferers

Can You Answer These Questions?
Do you know why ointments do not give you quick and lasting relief?
Why cutting and operations fail?
Do you know the cause of piles is internal?
That there is a stagnation of blood in the lower bowel?
Do you know that there is a harmless internal remedy discovered by Dr. Leonard and known as HEM-ROID, now sold by Schmitz Bros. Co. and druggists everywhere, that is guaranteed?

HEM-ROID lamshes piles by removing the cause, by forcing blood circulation in the lower bowel. This simple home treatment has an almost unbelievable record for sure, safe and lasting relief to thousands of pile sick sufferers, and saves the needless pain and expense of an operation. Don't delay. Try HEM-ROID today. It will do the same for you. adv.

SELL SHOWS T. B. TEST PICTURES TO FARMERS

Neenah—Tuberculin tests in cattle was the subject of an interesting motion picture shown Wednesday evening to members and patrons of Neenah branch of Wisconsin Cheese federation by G. Sell, Winnebago-co agricultural agents. The meeting was a get-together arranged by the federation and was attended by 150 men of the valley. A program of talks was given by J. Armstrong, president of the local branch; Charles Grode, of Kaukauna and Edward Row, manager, Robert Amundson, Outagamie-co farm agent, talked on work of the federation and illustrated it with chalk drawings. A smoker followed the program.

NEENAH SOCIETY

Miss Vernet and James Ehrigott entertained a party of 20 young people Wednesday evening at their home on Main-st. The evening was spent in playing games, music and dancing.

Equitable Fraternal union members and their families held a dancing party Wednesday evening in the lodge hall.

Ukelele club of girls of Young Woman's club, had its first social session Wednesday evening at the club rooms on E. Doty-ave. The evening was spent in music. The club now has 39 members.

ROTARY EDUCATION IS DISCUSSED AT LUNCHEON

Neenah—Rotary education was subject of a talk given by Dr. J. M. Donovan Thursday noon at the weekly luncheon of the Rotary club at Valley Inn. Rotary work and what members are expected to do to make the club a success was discussed by the doctor.

FENCE AROUND SCHOOL
Neenah—Workmen have started placing 438 feet of ornamental fencing around the grounds of Roosevelt school and gymnasium. About 31 feet is to be fenced on E. Forest-ave. and 124 feet on First-st. The new fence is six feet high.

COOLIDGE LIKES TO PUT HIS FEET IN KITCHEN OVEN

President Impervious to Cold that of Doors but Wants it Warm in House.

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
Washington — President Coolidge seems as impervious to cold as a polar bear. He has an overcoat—in fact, several—but he appears to wear one only for show, as he wears a plug hat on formal occasions. When he goes for a walk, for pleasure or exercise, no. He almost invariably is coatless. The secret service men who accompany him aren't so weatherproof, however, as they are. They've been piling on muffs, mufflers and overcoats for weeks now. They worry considerably about the president, too. Hadn't he better put something on, they suggest, as they start out. It's pretty chilly, but the president shakes his head nearly always. "Don't need anything."

He walks fast, but apparently it isn't to keep warm, for he walks fast in hot weather also. And even as he doesn't shiver in December or January, nobody ever saw him in a perspiration in the dog days.

Curiously enough, indoors the president is a good deal of a salamander. He likes plenty of heat in the White House.

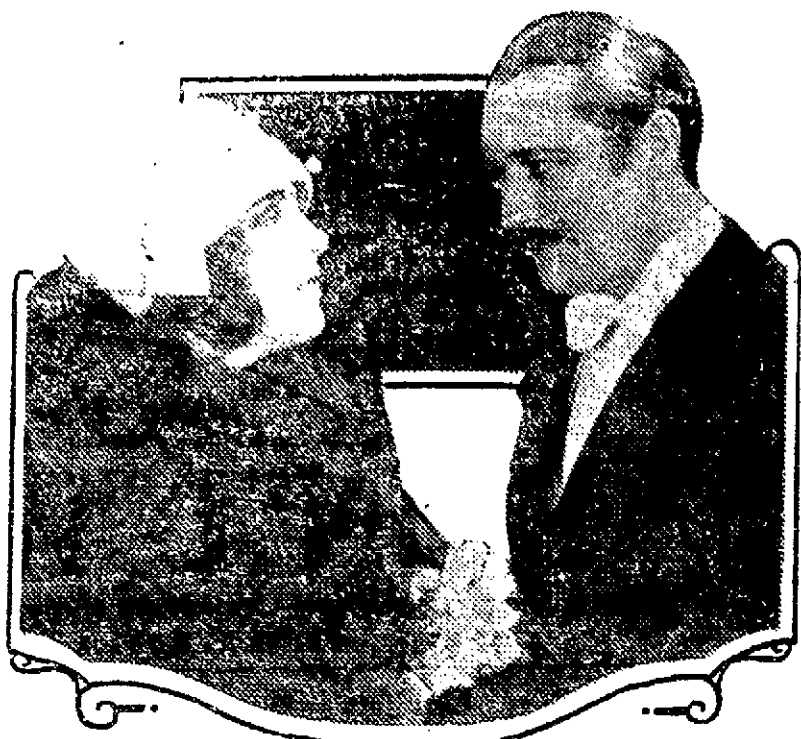

It's related of him by those who knew him during his earlier years in Northampton that one of his favorite ways of spending an evening, then, was to sit and think—nothing but think—from right after dinner until bedtime with his stockinged feet in the oven.

No oven's available at the White House—available to the president, that is to say. There's one there, of course, but the national chief executive can't spend his evenings in the kitchen. It's reported, however, that he's been caught with his feet one one of the radiators.

COLUMBUS SCHOOL STILL HAS PERFECT RECORD

Thrift seems to be the keynote of Columbus school for this institution continues to maintain its perfect banking record for the year, according to report for the week ended Dec. 8. As a matter of fact, since the school year opened all the 222 pupils deposited money in the bank. The record for the week shows that 2,749 students of 2,563 in local schools are depositors, giving the school an average of 87 per cent. Deposits by the 222 pupils for the week total $225.12 and 73 withdrawals during the week took $202.81 out of the bank. A total of $5.31 in interest was added to the bank's school deposits. The week's report on banking follows:

Columbus school—222 students, 222 depositors, $42.25 deposited; Franklin school—211 students, 201 depositors, $22.71 deposited; Fourth ward school—193 students, 189 depositors, $21.92 deposited; Richmond school—71 students, 72 depositors, $7.65 deposited; McKinley school—80 students, 80 depositors, $17.27 deposited; Lincoln school—164 students, 157 depositors, $28.94 deposited; First ward school—118 students, 111 depositors, $17.62 deposited; Brown school—43 students, 57 depositors, $5.75 deposited; Appleton high school—730 students, 51 depositors, $105.00; Total—2,563 students, 2,222 depositors, $225.12 deposited.

War Department Asks For Monument For Unknown

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
Washington — World a monument to honor the unknown soldier, the War Department wants a monument and will ask Congress for $50,000 to erect one. This request will meet opposition—just how much is uncertain until the question actually comes up on the ground that the unknown slab which marks his grave is the most appropriate memorial to the unknown. Nobody disputes his title to the highest honors the country can pay. The difference of opinion relates only to the manner of paying them.

One hundred per cent of its war grant appropriations have been lost. The 69th Congress has more women members than any previous Congress—three. They are: Mrs. Florence T. Kahn of California, Mrs. Nora T. Norton of New Jersey and Mrs. Elsie Nourse Rogers of Massachusetts. All are congresswomen's wives.

Miss Jeanette Rankin of Montana was the first congresswoman. Miss Alice Robinson of Oklahoma had a seat in the 67th Congress and during

NO CHAIRMANSHIPS FOR BADGER CONGRESSMEN

While none of the Wisconsin congressmen received committee chairmanships in the organization of the house of representatives Tuesday, in keeping with the policy of punishing the insurgents, most of them received appointments on two or three committees. George J. Schneider, Appleton, representing the Ninth district, was placed on the committees on railways and canals, and expenditures in the interior department. Congressman Edward Browne of Waupesa was placed on the committees on irrigation, civil service and expenditures in the state department, and Congressman Florian Lampert was assigned to District of Columbia, coinage, weights and measures, patents and territories committees.

His last session shared honors with Mrs. Winifred Mason Hunk of Illinois, Mrs. Rebecca Laitner Felton of Georgia sat two days in the upper house, as the late Senator Tom Watson's temporary successor.

It's rare coincidence, doubtless, that no woman member of either house of Congress ever has been reelected.

Think of making a national issue of a small question as to the conditions under which an auto driver's license may be revoked in any given American city.

Well, that's what just such a piffling little question is, in Washington. That is to say, Congress has to decide it. It will be hard fought, too. There'll be a debate and speeches about it. A declaration of war calls for no more legislative procedure—that will be required to determine whether or no Washington motorists ought to have the right of appeal from the municipal traffic director's rulings concerning their licenses.

15-MILE SPEED IS ORDERED FOR TRAINS IN CITY

Railroad Company Orders Precautions Following Near Accident Here.

Chicago and Northwestern railway trains entering Appleton hereafter must slow down to 15 miles an hour when passing the city limits as a means of decreasing grade crossing danger, according to an order issued by J. S. Rice, Green Bay, division superintendent.

Notice of this action has been communicated by W. E. Basing, local agent, to R. G. Wort, traffic manager of the chamber of commerce, in response to notification by the latter of a near accident several days ago in which the lives of six persons were endangered.

Mr. Rice declares that the road not only will adhere to the 15-mile-an-hour speed but that other action will be taken to make the crossings more safe for traffic.

Mr. Wort took this matter up with the railroad company when the gates failed to operate at N. Union-st and Emil Zeidler drove his automobile onto the tracks in the path of an on-coming passenger train while conveying five children to Roosevelt junior high school. A frantic warning by Mrs. Roy Hauert, a pedestrian who saw the danger, enabled Mr. Zeidler to apply power to his engine and clear the rails just as the locomotive sped past.

It was found that the gates were frozen up and the compressed air mechanism refused to operate. The flagman is halfway between two streets and has another crossing to look after, therefore could not guard the crossing personally. A suggestion also has been made that flagmen test the gates as soon as they go on duty in the morning.

CITY IS IN RACE FOR CHEST CLINIC

Womans Club Endeavoring to Win Prize for Largest Per Capita Sales.

People of Appleton and vicinity who desire to aid with the Christmas seal sale being conducted by Appleton women for the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis association will be adding more than one cause, according to Mrs. C. D. Gochmayer, chairman of the Appleton group. A contest is being waged among cities of the state for the largest per capita contribution to the fund this year and he prizes are permanent office chest clinics. Members who can use more seals are requested to send for them and others can contribute to the fund by purchasing bonds, which the women are selling.

The cast of the play, the Student Prince, which is being presented at the Davidson theatre in Milwaukee, will broadcast a special Red Cross song dedicated to the seal drive as a part of the program from station WHAD, the Marquette university - Milwaukee Journal station, Tuesday evening.

APPLETON WON'T GET SECRETARY MEETING

Appleton is not to entertain the midwinter meeting of the Wisconsin Association of Commercial Secretaries as previously announced, because the officers have made a change to Milwaukee. The gathering was to be held within the next few weeks and Hugh G. Corbett, secretary of the chamber of commerce, was making his plans to entertain the secretaries. There seemed to be a preference for Milwaukee, however, and a change therefore was made. Notice to that effect was received here from C. E. Pratt, Sheboygan, president of the association.

APPLETON SCHOOLS NEAR OLD IRONSIDES QUOTA

All Appleton schools expect to reach their quota in the Elks nationwide Old Ironsides campaign before closing for the Christmas vacation, according to H. L. Davis, chairman of the drive in Outagamie-co. The only schools in the city which have not reported their quota are the Wilson and McKinley junior high schools, and a report is expected from them next week. The money to preserve the U. S. S. Constitution famous fighting frigate of the United States Navy, is being subscribed by school children all over the country, and the campaign is being carried on by the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. The quota for Outagamie-co is $300.

FUMANOINT

CAT PEPPLESS? TRY FEEDING IT A LITTLE YEAST

Hundreds of thousands of people have been eating yeast as health food for the last few years, and now the use of this commodity has been extended to include household pets and barnyard animals and fowls. A preparation for animals called dry yeast is now being manufactured and has been on the market for about six months. The dry yeast is mixed with the animal's food and is guaranteed to make them grow faster, and keep them in good health. Animals for which dry yeast is especially recommended are rabbits, dogs, cattle, pigs, pigeons, chickens, and horses.

ONLY 29 STUDENTS LEAVE LAWRENCE

Number of Lawrentians Falling by Wayside Is Small This Year.

Only twenty-nine students who enrolled at Lawrence at the beginning of this school year will not finish this quarter's work, it has been ascertained from the records of Olin Mende, college registrar. This list includes all who were forced to leave because of sickness or financial difficulties, and those who were asked to drop by college authorities.

Of the group, fourteen were freshmen and fifteen upperclassmen. Of this number, only four upperclassmen were asked to leave because of poor work. Other causes accounted for the rest.

One case of homesickness was severe enough to cause the sufferer to leave school and go home, and general sickness accounted for thirteen more. One automobile accident caused the exit of another student.

Examinations may cause many more to fall out, but as yet the "traditional sore-eye special" has had but few passengers.

TRUCK WRECKED WHEN IT SKIDS OFF ROAD

A truck owned by Hontenberger Bros. Inc. and driven by Herbert Kirchenlore, 1339 W. Washington-st was badly damaged Monday morning near Shiocton, when it slid off the road and turned over in the ditch, after the brakes failed to hold while the car was going down a hill. Kirchenlore was unhurt. The top of the truck was completely wrecked.

Adventures Of The Twins

Hunting The Ship's Clock

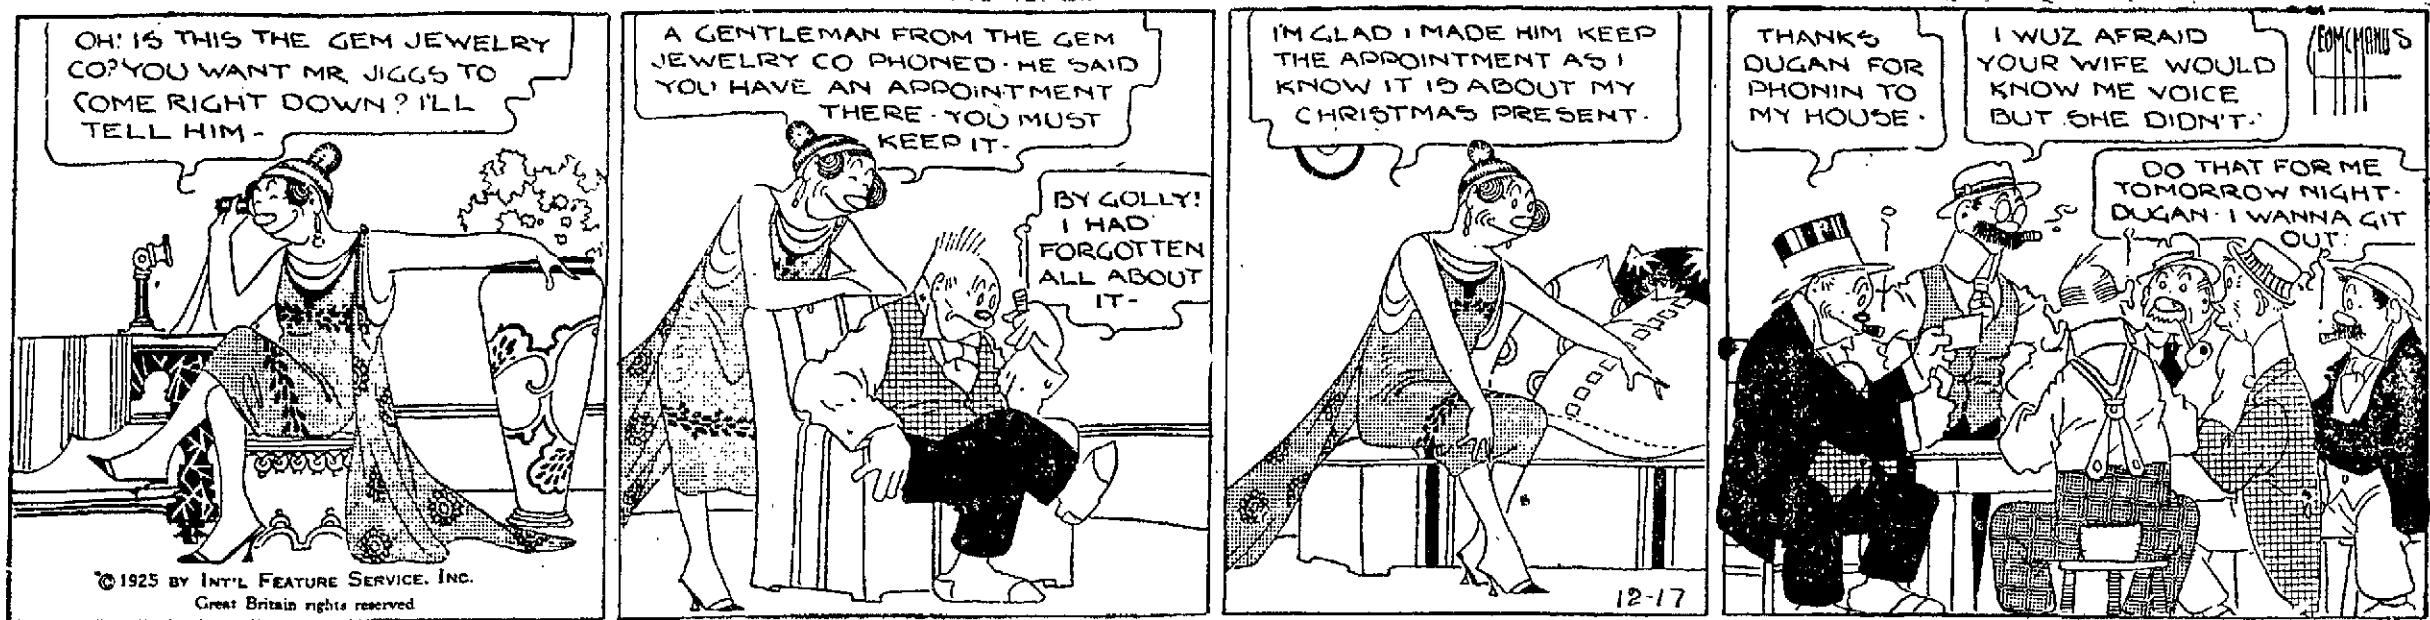

"Where to next?" asked the Twins.
 "Out to sea," said Tick Tock, the clock fairy.
 "What?" fairly shrieked Nancy and Nick in their surprise.
 "That's what I said," grinned Tick Tock. "Out to sea."
 "But where shall we find any clocks on the sea?" asked Nick.
 "Where do you suppose?" remarked the fairy. "On a big ship, of course. If you really want to know it, ships have more uses for clocks almost than any other thing except railroad trains. If it hadn't been for ships needing something to tell time by, I don't suppose clocks would have been invented when they were."
 "What ship are we going on?" asked Nancy who was beginning to get excited.
 "On a ship called 'La Paloma' that brings coffee from South America and sugar from Cuba for the people in the United States to use," said Tick Tock.
 "Is the clock broken?" asked Nick.
 "Sort of—at least it had a bump and won't go properly. Something went wrong with a lighthouse on some of the Florida reefs and the ship struck a rock. It didn't hit it very hard, only sideways, and so not much harm was done. But things were knocked about."
 "Suppose the clock fell down," said Nancy.
 "No, sir! Not a ship's clock," said Tick Tock. "Not only are they shaped so that they cannot fall over, but they are fastened tight so that nothing but an axe could loosen them. And the works are arranged in such a way that the swinging motion of the boat does not affect them even in a storm. But come, we will have to be using our magic shoes or we shall never get there."
 But arriving at the dock they discovered that the "La Paloma" was not there. They looked along at all the big boats in the line, but no "La Paloma."
 "Oh, I know," said Tick Tock. "I suppose they have her in dry dock."
 "What's dry dock?" asked Nick.
 "Questions—always questions," laughed Tick Tock. "But that's all right. That is the way to find out about things. A dry dock is a big place near the edge of the water, where they run the boat up on wheels right out of the water. The boat sits up on a sort of high rack so that every part shows. If she has had an accident then the men can get at it to fix it up. They can't fix up a boat as long as she is in the water. I suppose the "La Paloma" has had a bad scrape and needs some new boards and iron to repair her. Yes, sir! I was right. Here is the dry dock and there is the boat we are looking for, sitting like a lady in a dentist's chair. The men are all gone, so we can slip up this rope ladder and get on her deck. Then we can hunt up the room where the captain stays and where the clock is and the log is kept."
 "The what?" cried the Twins.
 "Tick Tock laughed again. "The log. That's a sort of ship's diary where they put down everything that happens each day," he said. "Every boat keeps a log. It is very important."
 "Here we are at the captain's cabin now."

"And I found, Leslie," continued Mr. Sartoris, "that I was quite as glib as she seemed innocent. Her very artlessness stayed off any doubt that I would have had of a more obviously clever woman."
 "Presently she dried her tears, and mounting her horse rode away, after promising to meet me the next day at the same place."
 "Determining to keep my identity secret, I went to my attorneys the next morning and asked them to arrange with some other attorneys for a client who must be nameless to hold in trust the sum of $25,000 for Miss Madeleine Menjies, to be paid to her in full or in such sums as she might desire."
 "I have not time, Leslie, to go into this in detail. Suffice it to say that before the book store was purchased and went through, I was head over heels in love with Madeleine, whom I fatuously believed did not have the slightest idea of who the man was who was asking her to be his wife."
 "She sweetly agreed, after a little hesitation, to a hasty wedding, then I disclosed to her my real name. (I had been masquerading under the name of Robert Brown.) Two weeks from the time I met her in the woodland roadway, we were on our way to the Mediterranean in my yacht."
 "For a few weeks all went well, then in spite of anything I could do, Madeleine began to droop. She said she was getting tired of the sameness of the water. I hastily steamed into port at Marseilles, and in the morning after we disembarked I awakened to find that she had left me, leaving a note saying it was all a plan to get enough money out of me to keep herself and her lover in comfort for their lives."
 "Don't think too hard of me, Mel," she wrote. "I love Don so much that I cannot live without him, and I must have money to live with him, as he makes me very unhappy if I do not have enough to supply his luxurious tastes."
 "That morning when you found me crying he had told me that I must in some way get enough money out of you to keep us in affluence. I know all the time who you were. I must have been a very wicked woman Mel, but I hope I have not ruined your life."
 "Wasn't that a terrible thing, Little Marquise, for any woman to do? Do you blame him for never believing in one of us again?"
 "Since that time, Leslie," said Melvin Sartoris, "I have never allowed a woman to come into my life except as an amusement, for which I have always paid them. I have found that I could buy them, and having bought them, I have considered them mine to keep or throw away."
 "Leslie—my Lady of the Snows—almost you have persuaded me that there are good women in the world. I rose at this and involuntarily held out both my hands, saying:
 "The world is full of good women, Mr. Sartoris."
 "The man clasped his hands warmly and drew me slightly towards him."
 "I know at least there is one good woman in the world, and my heart is full of the joy that I have had the privilege of knowing."
 "Leslie, do you not think it is time we were going home?"
 "I looked up to see Jack and Syd beside me."

WEEK'S GAMES
Saturday—Menasha at Fondy du Lac.

In one of the lightest defensive games seen on a Menasha floor in some time, the Menasha Athletic association squad of the Eastern Wisconsin Home Talent Basketball league succored out a 7-5 win over the Moose Lodge team of Fondy du Lac the Mountain City representative in the loop, Wednesday evening. The win broke a second-place tie in the league. Both teams guarded in great style and yet fouls were infrequent and the game clean and hard-fought. Fondy caged a pair of markers and the Pails three.

WEDNESDAY GAME
Fondy du Lac 20, Beloit 17.

WEEK'S SCHEDULE
Thursday—Sheboygan at Beloit.
Friday—Fondy du Lac at Two Rivers.
Saturday—APPLETON AT FONDY DU LAC.

Putting the biggest surprise of the 1925-26 cage season and playing a near perfect brand of basketball, Co. M, cage team of Fondy du Lac, whipped the crack Beloit Fairies Wednesday evening at Fondy du Lac in an Interstate Pro League game. The final score was 20-17. The defeat pulled the Fairies, loop leaders since the season opened, from the top rung and left Sheboygan chairs alone on the peak with two wins and no defeats. The Champs beat Appleton and Fondy du Lac. Thursday night the Sheboygan crew invades Beloit in a battle for the top rung, the chairs to hold their newly-acquired position and the Fairies to regain the lead. The chairs did not play this week but took the lead anyway and they will be fresh, while the game is Beloit's third successive league tilt in three days. Beloit has the home floor advantage, however.

Fondy du Lac lead the Pairs at the half, 12-8 and Dukas Duford went out early in the final period on personal fouls. Belkheimer, new Fondy du Lac center, was the star of the fray with three baskets and as many free tries.

The youngster played center for his home town, Plymouth, this season and when Kilnurray, star Fondy du Lac center was injured at Sheboygan last week, the Mountain City management requested permission of the loop officials to take on "Brick." It was granted and the youngster immediately showed what has kept the Plymouth five in a class with pro loop teams. Dugall with three baskets was the Fairies star. Krueger, high pointscorer of the loop, was kept under close guard and failed to show up sensationally.

SHORT SPORTS

In three world series Ty Cobb made a total of 17 hits in 65 times at bat and scored seven runs.

Dehart Hubbard, famous Michigan colored athlete, is now working as a physical instructor in the Cincinnati Y. M. C. A.

While Hector Michigan's great back of 20 years ago, never played on a losing team, during his four years of college football.

Zack Wheat of Brooklyn has been in the majors since 1909 but last season was the first time he succeeded in scoring 100 or more runs in one campaign.

George Little only lost one game in his football only season at Wisconsin, and oddly enough, it was to his old boss, Yen of Michigan.

Since Michigan and Minnesota had many sophomore stars on their team this fall, both have big hopes for next season.

Michigan scored two touchdowns on the first three plays in its 1925 football game with Wisconsin, one of the most unusual feats on record.

Young Jake Schaefer hung up the two highest runs in championship billiards competition during the 1925 campaign, getting 432 against Hornsman in their challenge match and 400 from spot in the annual titular tourney.

Bill Southworth was in five games in the 1924 world series between Washington and the Giants but was only charged with one time at bat.

4 A. L. CATCHERS WERE IN 100 GAMES

New York—Only four catchers in the American League took part in 100 games or over during the 1925 season.

They were: Cochrane of the Athletics; Ruel, Washington; Schalk, White Sox, and Bassler of Detroit. Cochrane was the real work-horse of the quartet, getting in 133 frays. Ruel was in 126; Schalk, 125, and Bassler, 118.

Myatt of Cleveland just missed out, working 98 games, with Bengough, Yankees, close behind with 94.

KID GLEASON TO SUPPLY PUNCH TO YOUNGER MACKS

Lack of Poise, Which Helped Lose Athletics Two Pennants Causes Signing of Kid.

BY BILLY EVANS

The Athletics failed in the crisis of the American League pennant race last season because the team lacked poise.

Poise in sport is hard to define. In a sense it means the ability to go over when things are breaking badly. It is a trait that keeps a team from going to pieces when every break in the world seems to go against it.

Until September of last year, the Athletics were riding on the top of the sport world. Many experts liked the chances of Mack's team to nose out Washington. Then trouble started and it continued right up until the end of the season.

The Athletics finished second. The team failed to win the American League pennant because it lacked poise.

In signing the colorful William "Kid" Gleason to assist him in handling the Athletics, Connie Mack believes he has secured the man who will supply that much needed asset to his ball club.

I have known Kid Gleason for 25 years. He is a quiet, interesting character. I like Kid Gleason because he is a fighter but is always fair. The Kid never asks anything but a 50-50 break and probably wouldn't weep very much if the figures proved he was getting about 10 per cent the worst of it.

Kid Gleason is a square shooter, beloved by every one connected with baseball. His addition to the personnel of the Athletics adds plenty of color to a team inclined to be rather drab, despite great natural ability.

Gleason is one of those fellows who kicks you on the shin as he says good morning, or slaps you so hard on the back that you have trouble setting your breath for about five minutes, yet you like to have him do it.

The Philadelphia Athletics failed last season in the pinch because it was a young team that had no veteran in the lineup or on the coaching lines able to steady the boat when it started to rock.

Adding fire to the lack of poise was the team's psychology. For years the Athletics had annually slumped and dropped to the cellar. When the team as a pennant contender went to pieces, the players accepted it as something sure to happen. Fate had decreed.

"Kid Gleason is one of those fellows who believes everything is going to be alright. He is an optimist. Kid believes there is plenty of good in everybody.

Gleason is anything but a fair weather sailor. He can smile as broadly in adversity as in success. It is the end he is sure everything will be alright. He is a fighter of the old school, hard, but fair.

Kid Gleason is going to supply the Athletics with the much needed poise. However, the Kid probably wouldn't call it by that name. Hello!

GRID BOSSES TAKE BLAME FOR "SCANDAL"

Chicago—(AP)—Entire responsibility for the appearance of four Englewood high school football players with a Milwaukee professional team in a game here last week has been taken by Art Feltz, pro-player of the Chicago team, which opposed the Wisconsin club.

He took the blame in an effort to clear the youth of charges of professionalism and threatened banishment from amateur athletic competition. Responsibility in part also was taken by Chris O'Brien, manager of the Chicago Cardinals, professional team.

Feltz said he had induced the boys to play in the belief the game would be a practice contest without an admission charge. O'Brien said he did not know they were prep players until the game started, but he allowed them to continue. Several hundred spectators paid admissions.

Ambrose McGurk, manager of the Milwaukee team, living here, could not be located.

O'Brien said he had told the story to Joe Carr, president of the national league of professional football clubs in Columbus. Carr has said he would investigate charges of tampering with high school players and if such was found to be the case, a fine of $1,000 would be assessed against O'Brien.

JONES INVENTS UNIQUE TIMING MACHINE

Coach Tom Jones of the University of Wisconsin is the inventor of a most ingenious device to aid runners in determining their pace while training on the track.

The machine, as shown in the picture, has much the appearance of a radio set.

When a runner wishes to run a certain distance in a certain time, he adjusts the machine to ring a gong at an interval of time equal to what he should cover each lap in. Thus, if he runs correctly, he will pass the machine on each lap just as the gong rings, signifying that he has set the correct pace.

The machine has been most successfully used since its introduction in the University of Wisconsin gymnasium.

Experts Predict Jimmy M'Larnin Will Be Champ

Los Angeles—Jimmy McLarnin will be featherweight champion of the world before he is out of his "teens."

George Blake, one of the leading boxing authorities in America and manager of Fidel La Barba, world's flyweight champion, is responsible for this prediction.

"McLarnin has always been one of the cleverest boxers in the game," said Blake. "He used to lack the needed punch. But he has that now and nothing in this world should stop him from winning the title."

According to Blake, McLarnin has everything necessary to a champion. He is fast, extremely clever, shifty and has a terrific punch.

After McLarnin beat Pancho Villa the California boxing commission suspended him "because he was too young." He was recently reinstated on his eighteenth birthday. His first match was with Jackie Fields, Olympic featherweight champion, in 1924. McLarnin was a 10 to 7 favorite for this bout. But even "Pop" Foster, his manager, didn't expect him to do more than win the decision. Jimmy punched and battered Fields all over the ring. He knocked him down five times in the second round, the last time for a long count. His right was a battering ram that few, if any, 126-pounders will be able to withstand.

Local promoters are angling for a match between the "Belfast Spider" and Charley "Phil" Rosenberg, bantam champ. There would be no title involved, as McLarnin could not make the necessary weight.

After that Foster and his protégé will start on the trail of Kid Kaplan. Foster believes that little Jimmy could beat Kaplan today. "I have been studying the boy ever since he first asked me to be his manager," says Foster. "That was nearly two years ago. I know just what he can give and how much he can take. When Jimmy meets Kaplan there is going to be a new champion."

The really big game of the year for Ohio State is Illinois. It is always the climax of a good or bad season. It was the film game of 1924 that opened the road to fame for Hess.

Up until that game he had been just a substitute forward. An injury to Doc Dwyer gave him the big chance. The work featured that contest.

So remarkable a game did he play, that I am told Coach Dr. John Wille informed him at its finish that he had the position of guard cinched for the coming year. It is said to be the first time Coach Wille ever did such a thing.

In the pre-season dope, however, few of the football experts gave Hess even a chance in considering State's prospects.

The 1924 game with Illinois gave Hess his big chance, but it was really in the 1925 clash with Columbia that made him.

Eastern experts were of the opinion that Columbia had one of the strongest teams in that section. At least a dozen of the most prominent eastern football critics saw the game.

As in the Illinois game, Hess was the outstanding star of the Columbia contest. He tore through the Columbia line at will and so broke up the backfield combination of that eleven that State scored a decisive victory.

Throughout the season the west saw plenty of what Hess could do and came to view him as easily the best guard in the Big Ten. However, it was the Columbia game that made him a national figure.

From a lowly substitute to All-America guard in one short year reads like a page from fiction. It is probably just that to Ed Hess.

CARROLL GRIDGERS PLAY IOWA IN 1926

Waukesha—Carroll college will play the University of Iowa in football next fall, according to announcement made by the Pioneer's athletic department Wednesday. Negotiations, which have been in progress for some time, were concluded by the Hawkeyes allotting Oct. 30 to the Waukesha school.

This game will find Carroll playing Iowa one week after the Iowans play Ohio at Columbus and one week before Minnesota goes to Iowa City to beat Coach Ingwersen's team. So far as is known here, it is the first time, at least in recent years, in which any Wisconsin college has met a conference eleven except early in October.

Lawrence played Iowa in 1924 on Oct. 20 so that Carroll's statement in the last paragraph is a trifle incorrect unless she considers Oct. 20 as an "early date in October."

Mendville, Pa.—(AP)—Pedro Lopez, heavyweight champion of Mexico, knocked out Pat Irish, Cleveland, in one round.

VALLEY CAGER IS STAR OF BADGERS

Hotchkiss of Oshkosh, a Soph., to be 'Big Cog in Meanwell's 1926 Scoring Machine.

Madison—Among the outstanding 1924-25 frosh who are this year the makeup of Coach Meanwell's Varsity basketball team, there is one representative of the Fox river valley, who is sure to become an outstanding star in the Big Ten basketball circle.

George Hotchkiss is this youngster and to date he has been found at left forward on the Varsity. In all probability he will remain at this post.

Hotchkiss hails from Oshkosh where he was an outstanding star on the quint of that high school. He captained the team the year they competed in the State tournament at Madison and was unanimously chosen on the all-state team as a forward.

His work was such that he stood head and shoulders over his mates. Despite a bad knee that slowed him up in the last day of play, he calmly led his team to the finals. His single efforts, however, were not enough and they were forced to be content with second place.

Hotchkiss is the best floor worker on the squad this year, but needs experience. Doctor Meanwell is satisfied with his play and stated that he fits well in his type of play. His lone weakness is in his shooting. The youngster has apparently never been taught a form shot and fails to rebound while tossing the ball for the hoop. His work in the first two games of the winter season has been commendable and with steady improvement, he is sure to become a great asset of the "Doc's" great game of basketball.

Oakland, Cal.—(K. O.) Phil Karpman, Newark, N. J., middleweight, won a decision over Charley Long, Omaha negro, ten rounds. Jackie Gordon, New York featherweight, won from Pico Ramirez, Los Angeles six rounds.

Fresh Fish For Breakfast—Stockholm—(AP)—Fish caught in the North sea during the night will be taken into Gothenburg, loaded into an automobile and be on the table in Stockholm at nine next morning. This is Sweden's latest venture in air transport and will be carried out by two planes, each carrying half a ton.

Menasha went into the lead in the Fox Valley Bowling League race with a big bang Wednesday night when the Menasha Alleys had little trouble downing the Hoppie Wiener crew of Appleton in three straight games and the Tourist Inns of Little Chute into the loop collar. By taking the three games from the Appleton squad, the Menasha Alley pinbusters not only took a lead in the loop which will not be threatened for several weeks unless they take an extra bad slump, but also put a close rival out of the way for a little while. The Wieners were in a tie for second place right on the heels of the Pail city crew, but the big loss sliced them down to a tie for fourth place with a .500 average.

Two teams, though one was a loser, profited by the loss of the Wieners squad. The Tourist Inns, Menasha's second entry in the race, whipped Dick's Five of Little Chute, to climb into a tie for second place. The Tourist crew has been plugging along steadily with a slight edge of wins over defeats since the race started and its steady work, though unsensational, finally pushed it up with the leaders. Menasha has two of the first three teams. The Blue Moons of Kimberly, though defeated 2-1 by the Hillegbergs of Kaukauna, clung to a second place tie with the Tourist Inns because of the Appleton squad's defeat. The Blue Moons were tied for the top with the Menasha Alleys until defeated by that crew two weeks ago.

The rally by the Hillegberg alleys which held the Blue Moons in second place, took the Kau crew from the loop cellar which it had occupied since the opening games of the season. The squad won 4 out of 6 games in the last two weeks after the disastrous start and threatens to bother the leaders yet. Dick's Five of Little Chute, tied for the "lower berth" with the Kau squad, sunk into the cellar alone as the result of its defeat by the Tourist Inns.

In the other game of the schedule, Arcade Alleys of Appleton remained in the sixth position but raised its percentage slightly by a 2-1 win over the Kaukauna Electric City crew. The Electric city maple dusters also held its fourth place tie but lowered its percentage a trifle.

FONDY TO ENTER TEN SQUADS IN STATE PIN MEET

Appleton Probably Will Be Host to More Than 500 Woman Keglers from Feb. 4-14.

Fondy du Lac—Upward to ten women's bowling teams will represent Fondy du Lac in the annual state women's tournament at Appleton beginning Feb. 4 and ending Feb. 14. Fondy will have the largest representation of any city in the Fox River Valley at the tourney as the women of this city have gone in "heavy" for bowling and many inter-city matches have been rolled although the season is early.

Each of the local bowling alleys will be represented by several teams at the tournament. The Fondy du Lac ladies hope to do as well as they did in the meet of Racine last year when they walked away with all the big prizes in each branch. There will be 100 or more ladies' teams in the tourney representing Fondy du Lac, Oshkosh, Appleton, Green Bay, Milwaukee, Kenosha, Racine, Madison and a few other scattering hamlets.

Entries for the tourney close Jan. 17 and no lencency will be shown late comers. Teams not registered on the given date will simply be excluded, according to Mrs. Jean Kneppath, secretary of the women's meet.

Green Bay—The tenth annual state tournament of the Wisconsin Highways and Automobiles Association will be held in Green Bay, February 11 to March 21 inclusive, it was announced here today.

The tournament events will be rolled on the alleys in the new $500,000 Columbus community club. The local bowling officers are R. H. Sindel, president; V. T. Rio, vice president; W. C. Belke, secretary; and E. J. Slupinski, treasurer.

Navy at Baltimore in 1926. Some years ago the Wolverines made an annual jaunt to the Atlantic seaboard, playing Cornell, Pennsylvania and Syracuse among others. The Annapolis tilt will be the second of a home-and-home series.

WAUPACA LIGHTS
LAKE AND HILL FOR WINTER FUN

Council Hears Paying Re-compensation Weyauwega
Lancers Defeated.

Special to Post-Crescent
Waupaca — As a result of action taken by the city council in a recent session, the city will be paying re-compensation to the Weyauwega
Lancers for the loss of their lights and hill for winter fun.

The council, at its last session, voted to pay the lancers $100 for the loss of their lights and hill for winter fun.
The council also voted to pay the lancers $100 for the loss of their lights and hill for winter fun.

LEVIZOW'S CLAIM STILL BEFORE STATE BOARD

The case of Leet Levizow vs. Rainbow gardens, which has had quite a battle before the state industrial commission and the supreme court, again boiled up in Oshkosh at hearings conducted by the commission last week. The case dealt with an accident which occurred on New Year's eve, 1922. Levizow was a deputy sheriff of Outagamie co., employed to supervise order in the Rainbow gardens. During the celebration several men tried to enter after admission had been denied them and in the scuffle Levizow suffered a broken leg. He attempted to obtain compensation first as a deputy sheriff and then as an employee of the garden.

Levizow's claim was still before the state board of industrial commissioners. The board is expected to render its decision in the near future.

Waupaca public school will close Friday for a two weeks' vacation and will resume work Monday, Jan. 4.
The many teachers who do not reside here will go to their respective homes for the holidays.

Mrs. Jennie M. Arters, wife of Samuel Arters, died at her home, 315 S.
Division-st. Tuesday. She had been ill for some time. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at the home with the Rev. F. C. Richardson officiating. Burial will be made at Lakeside cemetery, Waupaca.

ASK STREET LIGHT

Another petition signed by the residents in the vicinity of Waupaca and this time would have the city install a light at that point. This was referred to the lighting committee.

The crack basketball team of Weyauwega lost to the Waupaca city team in a fast and exciting game at Weyauwega high school gymnasium
Tuesday night by a score of 27 to 26. The home team was favored to win, and a victory for Weyauwega was not looked for. During the course of the game the leadership in scoring changed nine different times.
The final count for the winners was made in the last five seconds of play when they overcame a lead of one point held by Weyauwega, making the score Waupaca 27, Weyauwega
26. At the quarter the score was 4 even, at the half Weyauwega 8, Waupaca 5, the third quarter found both teams tied at 20 all, and during the final minute of play each scored baskets, resulting in victory for the visitors in a finish that brought the crowd to its feet. They lined up as follows:

Waupaca—Abendroth, right forward; Quigley, left forward; Maden, center; Davis, right guard; Tuttle,
left guard.

Weyauwega—Chapple, right forward; Pope, left forward; D. Wall, center; H. Wall, right guard; Clark,
left guard.

NO PLACE TO PLAY

A crowd of about 100 filled the gymnasium at the method of which was faced to stand. As the two remaining games are to be played at the same place, there was some talk of adding another bleacher. For the present the Waupaca team is without a home floor for exhibition purposes, as the owner of the armory

ANYBODY KNOW
JOS. KREIGER?

Relative of Man Who Died Month Ago Sought in Letter Received Here.

Who in Appleton knows Joseph Kreiger, blacksmith who is understood to have lived in this city for some time?

Relatives of the man are sought by E. L. Williams, city clerk, in response to a letter received from C. W. Oberholzer, postmaster at Burley, Idaho.
The letter declares that Mr. Kreiger died about a month ago in a small town near Burley called Matta. All efforts to locate his relatives have failed.

It was believed at first that he had lived at Green Bay but inquiry directed there met with no response. Later information revealed that he lived in Appleton and worked as a blacksmith.
The letter says he is understood to have a married daughter named Meyers living here. The man was a member of the Catholic church.

Mr. Williams asks that anybody knowing of Mr. Kreiger communicate with him so a reply can be sent to Burley.
